To my uncle Phil. May you live forever in the hearts of those who love you.

Phil

You taught me so much,
More than you will ever know.
Your actions were louder than any words,
Your love for Jesus, heart, body, and soul.

We did not talk much,
But you always treated me kind.
My dear loving uncle,
You were a rare find.

So young and arrogant was I,
Thinking I knew what the Bible had to say.
You never tried to change me,
Telling me to stay true to the Lord every day.

You led by example,
You practiced what you preached.
Your actions taught me so much,
You had plenty left to teach.

I say goodbye dear uncle,
You will truly be missed.
I am strong in my faith because of you.
May the Lord bless you with HIS gentle kiss.

I've never considered myself to be a great writer, or a mediocre writer at that but poetry is where I got my start. I have tried before to express myself but it wasn't until I was fifteen years old, trying to express how I felt to a girl who was walking out of my life, that I wrote my first poem.

I received my first kiss after that poem and shortly after I received my first real heartache, which of course gave birth to my being able to express myself through poetry. That very first poem is lost forever to time but the second poem I ever wrote is very raw and you can tell:

Who Gets The Girl

Do you know who almost always gets the girl? Well most of the time it's the forceful guys. It goes all the way back to the caveman days. I mean the guy who said, "Hey you look really nice with that bone in your hair, would you like to have dinner with me?" never got the girl. No it was the caveman who got her by the hair and dragged her to his cave. If I'm ever to take a girl it will be by the heart and not the hair.

Like I said, raw. The poems to follow are the poems I have written since the one above. You will see how I have grown over the years. Enjoy my pain, my heartache, my dreams, all my emotions for when I write a poem I no longer think with my brain, I write with my heart..

This book is dedicated to Vanessa. If you had not broken my heart the way you did I would not be the poet I am today. Rest In Peace forever.

The Wonder Years

These poems were written while I was in high school. They are random madness spanning over four years. They are in order of when I wrote them. Joy, sadness, love, rejection, you name it, I felt it. There are little stories behind each poem as to why I wrote it but the story most often told is me writing to the faceless woman in my dreams, my muse if you will. As long as she continues to haunt my dreams I will have something to write about.

My Debt

I owe you my deepest thanks. I wish there was a way I could repay you but nothing could ever show my appreciation to you. My life would have been blue if it wasn't for you to help me out. You've always been by my side with your arms open wide to hold me when I need a shoulder to cry on. No matter how we may fight, you still care about me and try to protect me from harm. Well I'm glad you choose to be my best friend and my debt to you will never end.

What I Like About You

I like everything about you,
The way you make me happy when I'm blue,
The way you drive me crazy when you comb your hair,
To one side of your face to wear.

When you turn your head to one side
It sends a shiver up and down my hide.
You look so cute
You make my lips want to toot.

I like the way your spirit by far
Is higher than any star.
I wish you could see
How much you mean to me.

But out of everything you do,
Just between me and you,
I love something that no one else can see,
That's the way you love me.

Friends

Friends are those that care
And to you are always fair.
Friends are those that dare
And with you everything share.
A good friend is very rare
And never leaves you when you dare
To take a look at life and stare
Into yourself and find something with care.

Friends are there for you
So long as your friendship is true.
Friends are a fine thing to have
And friendship should be as gentle as a calf.
Just as the ocean is blue
Friends will always be there for you.
Without a friend you live half
Because friends are a very good thing to have.

Take Away All My Blue

You know how to light up the dark
The way you make me feel in my heart.
You set my heart on fire
So that I wish to give you whatever you desire
Cause with you, love is what I found
And it's one of the world's most beautiful sounds.

You sweep me away with your charm
That I dream of holding you at night in my arms
And when I need to cry
There's nothing money can buy
That'll make me feel the way you do,
Cause you take away all my blue.

Always True

I can't go on alone
Cause I can't make it on my own.
I've gotten use to you hanging around
Making me act like a clown.

You make me smile
Whenever we are together, even for a little while.
You saw the real me
And saw things no one else could see.

You seen things in me and know what they mean,
You keep me believing in my dreams.
I know I won't find anyone as special as you
Cause you and your feelings are always true.

A Woman

A woman needs to be loved and cared for
Through hard times and good, ever more.
A woman is like a deer,
Gentle and full of fear,
So she needs to know your love is near
And you will listen with an open ear.

Women have lots of class
So treat them like fragile glass,
With tenderness and care
And always treat them fair.
A woman is a precious thing

And should make your heart sing.

Who Am I

What or who am I?
Everything this question is asked I answer with a sigh,
I honestly don't know
But I will not stop but go
Until I find out
Who I am
Even if I have to ask every Tom, Betty, or Sam.
Will you help me to ease my pain and hold my hand,
Until I find myself and fully understand
Why I'm here
But it will be easy with you here.

Beauty

What is beauty?
Well it is my duty
To let you know
That it's something that makes you glow.
Beauty comes from the heart
And he who knows that is very smart.
True beauty comes from the inside
Which a lot of people hide,
If you just look you'll find
That true beauty is with the mind.
If asked, "Where is true beauty?" what will you do
Well you'll say, "True beauty is inside you."

Believe In Me

You pick me up and take me away,
You always have wonderful things to say.
You make me feel like I can't be beat
And you make my life so complete.
I feel like I'm in heaven above
When I get lost in my love.
You believe in all that I can do
And you make me believe in myself when you say, "I love you."

Blessed

I could not ask for more
For I have been blessed ten-fold.
I've been given a good wife

To lean on and love in this life.
I've got a friend who will always care
And boy, is that something rare.
I've got children who love me
Cause I can make them laugh and keep them happy.
I don't have much wealth
But at least I've got good health.
I have a family who loves
Everything God gives us from above.
So I really don't want more
And for that I've been blessed ten-fold.

Don't Be Blue

You've been hurt before
And you don't want to love anymore
But even if you get at a real low
Please allow me to be your hero.
A hero who will love you till the end
And will always be your best friend.
A hero who fits your life like a glove
And who with you is madly in love.
Love has a hurtful sting
But it doesn't mean a thing
To me cause I will endure the pain
As long as we're together and stay sane.
What I'm trying to say is, "Don't be blue
Cause no matter what I'll always love you."

Heart Broke

How could I have known
I would end up heartbroken?
We had good times together
That made me feel light as a feather.
But I'm glad I didn't know
Cause you caused my soul to glow
And the time we had was fun
But now our fun is done.
I would not have missed this for anything
The world, emeralds, rubies, or a diamond ring.

I often wonder if the love I gave in the past
Would in your heart last
But now I see I was wrong
And in my mind I was not strong.
I know now not to past up a chance
To show my love in a song or dance
What I'm trying to say is I love you

And everything you do
Cause I have seen where I've been
And I don't want to be heartbroken again.

Carried Away

When I'm with you I get carried away
And I don't know what to say,
Sorry just won't do
Cause you get carried away too.
It feels like I'm on a roller coaster ride,
Going up and down with no place to hide.
My heart starts racing, faster with each beat
And I can't wait to meet
What our crazy love may bring,
Someday, who knows possibly a ring.
So when I'm with you it's hard to say
What I'll do because I get carried away.

The Couple

The couple who's madly in love
May everything you're dreaming of
Come true
And I wish all the best to you.
You find happiness in each other
And you love one another
With a bond that comes from the heart
And will never let you part.
You are the couple that can not fall,
You are the couple who has it all.

Control Over My Life

You can lift me up when I'm down
And you can turn my whole life around.
Cause whenever you're mad
It makes me sad,
And when you are happy
My sadness can never be.
So you see, you can take away my hurt and strife
Cause you have a lot of effect on my life.

Crazy Love

Hey, I'm the crazy one who makes you smile
Because I always go that extra mile

To see you happy
Just like me.

I'm the one who cares about you
Cares about the things you say and do
Cause I'm a loving type of guy
Whose head is in the clouds, way up high.

I'm crazy, yes it's true
But I'm just crazy about you.
I may be out of control
And you can bet I'll never let you go.

I'm wild, crazy, and like to have fun
And you're hotter than the sun
So, without a doubt we belong together
And we'll stay this way now and forever.

We're Different

I'm crazy and you're not,
I look okay but you're hot.
We're very smart
And both have big hearts.
So as we walk through life, hand in hand
I'm so grateful into my arms you ran.

I go out of my mind
When you say your sweet lines.
You always manage to stay sane
Through everything, the sunshine and the rain.
We may be different as night and day
But our love still blooms like the flowers in May.

My Creed

There's one thing I want to do in life,
And that is taking away peoples hurt and strife.
I enjoy making people happy
No matter how hard that may be.
It does my heart good
Knowing I did all I could
To make somebody's day
Whether they're near or far away.
I may give someone a hug
But that's how I show my love.
When I see someone sad
I get a little mad
But I go that extra mile

Cause everyone needs someone to turn to
So I'll promise to be there for you.
Nobody knows how far I'll go
And why I do it, I don't know
But I like helping people cause that's me
And I love to see everybody happy.
So I'll treat people like sisters and brothers
Cause I just like to help others.

Disappointment

Disappointment is something everyone must face
And it's something that everyone hates
But it makes us stronger
If we choose to accept it.
It takes us farther
Than we ever expected.

Disappointment, as bad as it may seem
Can sometimes be a good thing.
Don't let it get to you and make you mean,
Let it strengthen you and make you sing.
So disappointment is something we all must face
But it doesn't have to make us hate.

If I Didn't Have You

If I didn't have you
I would be lost,
If I didn't have you
I would be tossed
About in a sea
Of pain with no one to help me.
To myself I would never be true
If I didn't have you.

If I didn't have you
I would be a deer surrounded by wolves.
If I didn't have you
I would be like fools
Who hides their fears
Whenever his love is near.
I would never know what to do
If I didn't have you.

What You've Done to Me

Bonjour Bo,

Do you know
What you have done
To mi` Corazon?
You've driven it up the wall
And made me fall
Deeply in love with you
And I don't know what I'll do
If you won't have me.
I guess I have to make you see
How much love I have to give
To you as long as you live.
All I'm asking for is your tender touch,
Hey that's not much,
For the rest of your life,
Okay, I want you to be my wife.
But if you say yes
To this small request
I will be happy for all time,
Because I know you're mine.

Little Crook

As long as you are by my side
I'll never have anything to hide.
With each day comes a stronger love
Cause you're what I've been dreaming of.
You motivate me in a way no one else would
And do things no one could,
Like make me happy and smile with just one look
Cause you stole my heart, you little crook.

Don't Take Your Love From Me

Please don't take your love from me
For I love you so much I would swim the Red Sea,
Walk around the whole earth,
And for what it's worth
I would take care of you
Cause where ever you'll be, I'll be there too.

I have my pride
But if you leave me I'll be by your side.
Begging you please
Not to leave me on my knees
For I can't live without your love
Cause you're the only one I've been dreaming of.

Other Side of the Door

We had a little fight
Late last night.
Things were said we didn't mean,
And even what it may seem,
I still love you with everything I got,
And now I wish we never fought.

So I'll sleep on the porch floor,
Outside the front door,
Because I want to be close to you,
And prove my heart true.
We could love each other a lot more,
If you let me in, to the other side of the door.

What You Do To Me

Your eyes are so beautiful and deep
That I often see them in my sleep.
I drink of your lips so divine
Because they are sweeter than any wine.
You intoxicate me
So much that I really do feel as drunk as I can be.
I enjoy wrapping my arms around your waist
And pulling you close to me without haste.
Your hair, so rich and long
Is more beautiful than any song.
Your skin is so soft and smooth
That I truly am moved
To show you how much I love you
And take away all your blues.
Your face is so soft to the touch
That it fills my heart ever so much.
I don't know what it is you do
To drive me so crazy for you
But keep it up, no don't you stop
Because you I value the most and put on top.

Everyday

Everyday
That you're away
Loneliness I feel
And I get ill
But when you're around
You take away that frown
And make me well
Cause for you I fell.

Everyday
That you're away
My heart's in pain
And it drives me insane
That I can't think straight
And I pray you don't come home late
Cause I hate these blues
But they vanish when I'm with you.

Everyday
That you're away
I do what needs to be done
So that later you and I can have fun.
We're two of a kind
Whose love will stand the test of time
Cause no one can separate us
And if they try I will put up a fuss.

Love Never Fails

Love is great,
It has no hate.
Love is divine
Because it's yours and its mine.
Love is grand
And can make or break any man.
Love conquers all
And almost never falls.
Love is strong
Because it can last so long.
Love is sweet
Because it can sweep you off your feet.
Love is kind
When you find
That love may cry or wail
But love never fails!

Without A Fight

I'm not strong enough to make it on my own
So please don't ever leave me alone.
You have the power to make me happy
Cause without you I'm as helpless as a baby.
I need you by my side
So I can stand tall, with you as my bride.
You bring me such great joy
That I feel like a little boy
When you say, "I love you"
Cause it tells me that we're not through

I've lived my life the hard way
So you can believe when I say
That "I'll hold on to you tight
And never give you up without a fight."

The Way You Make Me Feel

When I think of you my heart sets a fire
And when I'm with you, you take me higher
Than anything in space
And you always make me feel safe.
When I'm with you, it's like walking on a high wire
And I have a big desire
To run away
But I stay
Because you take me places I've never been,
Like having the feeling of flying with the wind.
You make me feel above everything
Cause your love is not a fleeing thing.
These feelings I have are of
You and me being so much in love
Cause I'm crazy about you
And everything you do.

FLYING

As I soar through the air
My mind drifts away.
I'm in a happy place
And there I shall stay.
For when I fly
Nothing else seems to matter
And when I can not fly
Nothing makes me sadder.
It's very peaceful,
Soothing to the soul.
And it can be very exciting
When I do loops and rolls.
I feel like a King
The air is my domain
The plane is my Queen
And together we shall rein.
Flying is my life
Without it I could not live
Flying is who I am
And this joy, to you, I wish to give.

The Eagle

The eagle who flies so high
High up in the sky,
Is an amazing sight to see
Flying high over me.

Its wings are mighty indeed
Long, strong, and more power it does not need
For those wings are an awesome sight
When they take flight.

It takes your breath away
Seeing that eagle sway
Back and forth, up and down
So high off the ground.

What I've Found

Everyone's looking for someone to love,
Someone they can call their own.
And I, for one, have had enough
Of being on my own.

That being the case
I have a promise to make.
As I look into your beautiful face
My heart is yours for you to take.

I will always be true
And never cheat
Because I love you,
You're so sweet.

People spend their entire lives
Searching for what I've found.
Even husbands and wives
Don't have a love with its feet on the ground.

What I'm trying to say,
And sometimes it's hard to do,
Is, don't ever go away
Because I love you.

My Friend

You're important to me,
I need you in my life
Because it's so rare
To find a friend who gives a sacrifice.

You're there for me,
You help me when I'm down.
You always have a way
Of taking away my frown.

You've been my friend,
Through hard times we endured.
No matter how I acted
Even if I was a turd.

You've stood by my side
Through thick and thin
And I'm very proud
To call you my friend.

My Best Friend

To my best friend
Whose honor I would gladly defend
Cause you helped me in life,
Helped me to take away my hurt and strife.

When I'm in trouble you're always there
And I know you care
About me
Cause you're there to help me.

You stand by my side
When wounded is my pride.
I could not ask for a better friend
Who has stood by me time and time again.

A Dreamer's Dream

Dare I dream a dreamer's dream,
Of happiness in my life?
Dare I dream a lover's dream,
To live with love and not strife?

If I dream for such things
Then a fool am I
Because such things
For me are set too high.

I could never have that joy
Of "LOVE" all the time,
For I am just a toy
That "Irony" plays with all the time.

I know love,
I see the joys it brings
But like the stars above,
I am meant to own no such things.

Loneliness has proven to be
My best friend,
For it never leaves me.
I figure it's here till my end.

Rejection is a word I know
All too well.
I wish it would let me go
But because of it alone I must dwell.

I have a good heart
That can love someone true.
I've done my part
But I can never find "You."

Sometimes I wonder,
If "You" really exist.
If you do then I ponder,
Do you live in a dreamer's mist?

Do I dare to dream a dreamer's dream,
When all seems to be gone?
Do I dare to dream a lover's dream,
When everyone always says, "So long?"

Yes I dare,
And will endure all the pain I have to,
Because no matter what I still care
About finding that special "You!"

A Lover's Dream

Dare I dream a lover's dream,
Where nothing is as it seems?
A dream where I've found my true love
Sent to me from heaven above.

A dream where nothing ever goes wrong
And our love is always strong?
A dream where joy and happiness are all around
And nobody ever wears frowns?

A dream that doesn't end at the break of day,
Where love is something here to stay?

A dream where the world revolves around me and you
And where we always know our love is true?

No! This dream is not real
Because in life "Love" is not all you feel.
So, dare I dream a dream that does not exist,
A dream that will fade away with the morning mist?

Graduation

You've waited your whole life for this moment to come,
And now that it has, you feel you are done,
Because you did what no one else could do,
No one can graduate for you.

You've battled it out through school and summer,
And sometimes it felt like a total bummer,
But you didn't quit, no you kept on,
And now that battle you have won.

So I congratulate you on this proud and glorious day,
And with a hug and a handshake you are on your way,
To face whatever the world may hold,
Because you graduated with a class that's bold.

The Girl

I see
A young girl staring at me.
She asks me with her eyes,
"Is there more for you and I?"
Leaning on an old wooden fence,
In front of houses that look broken and bent.
She hopes there's more for her,
Like fine clothes and coats made of fur.
She wears a flower in her hair
To show she's kind, gentle, and fair.
So she will keep staring until the time comes,
When she doesn't have to live life as a bum.

I'm Grateful To You

You're sweet and kind,
And you have a good frame of mind.
You're always by my side,
And you give me a warm feeling inside.
I can't wait to see you again,
Because you truly are my best friend.

I don't need any help at all,
If you're there to pick me up when I fall.
You're always there to help me,
To be all that I can be,
And I thank the stars above,
That I have someone like you to love.
You're the dream that came true,
And I don't want anyone else but you.
You're always on my mind,
And I'm glad I had the chance to find,
Someone so sweet,
Who can sweep me off of my feet.

Never Let You Go

I walk down life's road,
Carrying its heavy load,
And it feels like the world is on my shoulders,
But I think about you and my troubles are over.
I just hold you tight,
Late into the night,
And think about how I feel,
And how we got a good deal.
There's nothing in this world that can take you from me,
Cause our love is one that will always be.
So I'll always do my part,
To let you know I love you with all my heart.
There's one thing for certain that I know
And that is, I'll never let you go.

Heart and Soul

I love you with my heart and soul, that's nothing new,
I wish you could have and do everything you want to,
But I'm not a super man who can satisfy your every need,
And there will always be some things I have to heed,
Like payments and bills,
Hey, I have to take care of you when you get ill.
But your happiness is number one
And making sure you have fun.
I'm sorry to say I can't give you the world,
A diamond or beautiful pearls,
But I can give you love and comfort,
From whatever may cause you hurt.
I said it before and I'll say it again,
I love you with my heart and soul, and will till the end.

Happier Than I'll Ever Be

So you won't ever feel alone,
I'll write or call you in the phone,
Just so you'll know,
That I won't let you go,
Because my heart's full of love,
And I thank God above,
For giving you to me,
Cause you make me happier than I'll ever be.

Make You Happy

It breaks my heart to see you sad,
And it really makes me mad,
Cause I care about you,
And I really hate seeing you blue.
So I'll go that extra mile,
Just to make you smile.
So, please don't get mad at me,
Cause I'm just trying to make you happy.

I'm Here For You

When the world comes crashing down,
And you're filled with doubt.
I'll take away that frown,
And show you the way out.

If you need a shoulder to cry on,
Or someone to talk to,
I promise I'll be strong,
And never leave you.

Remember you're never alone,
Cause I promise to never let you go.
Neither one of us can make it on our own,
Cause our love is what makes us glow.

Here For You

A sweet and wonderful girl,
That is like a fine pearl.
I would walk ten thousand miles to see,
Someone as beautiful as thee.

I love to look at thee,
And your beauty knocks me down to my knee,
So that I can give my love to you,

And my heart will always be true.

Oh, how I wish I could meet,
Someone as sweet
As you are to me,
But no one is more beloved as thee.

These are my feelings of a girl so true,
Just as the ocean is blue,
And a baby is new,
I want you to know I'm always here for you.

Home

Home can be anyplace,
Just as long as you feel safe.
Your heart is always there,
And where everything seems fair.

Home is where you want to be,
Where it's beauty only you can see.
Home is where you don't feel blue,
That's why I feel at home when I'm with you.

I Care

I always do something that gets me in trouble,
And then I do something that makes it double.
Despite what it may seem,
I really don't mean,
To hurt you in any way,
And I'm not ashamed to say,
That I'm sorry for what I put you through,
But if you only had a clue,
On how I feel inside,
You would see that I'm scared and so I hide.
My point is I'm a klutz in all I do,
But no matter what, I care what happens to you.

How I Feel

I have no fear,
When you are here,
Holding me tight,
Keeping me safe from the night.

I'll act like a clown,
Just to keep you from feeling down,

Cause when you're with me
I'm as happy as can be.

I can never live without you,
Otherwise I would be blue.
I want us to become close,
Cause I love you the most.

I need someone to love,
And you're the one I'm dreaming of.
You know I'm sensitive and not made of steel,
I love you cause you know how I feel.

I Love You

I may seem cold and hard to know,
But that was all a show,
Cause I was scared of getting my heart broke,
By someone's mean and cruel joke,
But you proved me wrong,
With your love that's so strong,
That I sometimes feel ashamed
Cause I acted so lame.
So I know "I love you" was hard for me to say
But you can bet your life that I meant it every day.

I Miss You

I missed you!
Yes, it's true,
I missed you
And all the little things you do.

I can't stand it when you're not around,
And I feel down,
Wearing a frown,
All because you're not around.

You've become a part of me,
And I'll try to make you see,
That whatever may be,
You will always be a part of me.

So no matter how far you go,
I want you to know,
That even if I'm a little slow,
I will always be with you, wherever you go!

You're Important To Me

You're important to me,
You're a part of my life,
You're the one thing I need,
To take away my strife.

You helped me when I was down,
And through hard times to endure.
You act just like a clown,
With motives that are so pure.

I don't know how to describe
My feelings for you.
It's a feeling I can't subside,
Cause of all the wonderful things you do.

When we're together nothing can go wrong,
Cause we're protected by love,
A love that is strong,
And is sent from God above.

What I See

You sit there with your hair all a mess,
I must confess,
You look as beautiful as you can be,
At least you do to me.

I see things that may not be there
But that's only because I care.
I want to love someone with all my heart and soul,
So that you will know,
How much I truly love you,
And all the little things you say and do.

Your joys and pains are mine to share,
I mean it's only fair,
Because you're always there for me,
To make my life happy.
I wish there was a way to show you what my love means,
But it's not as easy as it seems,
For I may not say, "I love you."
But I'll always show it with everything I do.

Irony

It's funny
Irony,

Because you expect one thing but the total opposite comes out,
And it fills you with doubt.
You start to question who you are and what you're worth,
And you sometimes wish you were six feet under the earth.
Before it strikes you have hope,
Then you feel like a dope,
Because you believed in something that was never there,
And it doesn't care
How bad it may hurt you
Because Irony will always leave you blue.

Knight In Shining Armor

Like a knight in shining armor
I am a man who would fight for your honor,
Cause my love for you is strong
And will last so very long.
No one can stop my love,
For when I'm with you I feel above
Everyone I know,
Friend or foe.
I am not scared to cry,
Or even end my life, die,
For someone as beautiful as you
Who's love for me is true.
So I'm your knight in shining armor
That without a doubt would fight and die for your honor.

The Love Song

The love song is something from the heart,
That keeps couples from falling apart.
The love song is something that cares,
When you and another heart share.

The love song allows the chance
For two hearts to dance.
The love song takes wing
When our hearts begin to sing.

The love song is with very few,
Only ones like me and you.
The love song never fails
Between male and female.

The love song is very rare
And is awarded to those who dare
To take one another and share
So that Love for them is equally fair.

A Special Kiss

A special kiss is not any kiss,
It's one that you can not miss.
A special kiss is filled with love and care,
And when given, happiness fills the air.

A special kiss is wonderful to share,
With someone you love and treats you fair.
A special kiss is not one of romance or passion,
But one of the innermost fashion.

A special kiss is given to those whom you love,
And inner beauty is like a fine dove.
Oh how I wish,
That I could give you that one very special kiss.

Life

Life isn't fair
And will not always give you your share
Of something sweet
Or something you think is neat.

Life takes no sides
And will test you until you die.
To see if you're strong enough to seek
Or if in your heart you are weak.

Life has its up's and downs,
Smiles and frowns.
Life gives you smiles for free
So please don't take them away from me.

Love

Love is given to people
But you must pay a caring fee.
It lets people walk who are cripple
And allows the blind to see.
Although they may not be able to do these literally
With love anything is possible mentally.

Love is not a self sacrifice
Or a roll of the dice.
It's something that you share
Filled with giving, kindness, and care.

Love is something very very smart
And it comes straight from the heart.

Love Me Too

I don't want no blonde
Because you and I have a strong bond.
I don't want anyone else in my bed,
Including some tall, big chested red head,
Because I love you and only you
And I would hope you love me too!

When I go to sleep at night,
It's you I dream of holding tight.
I really don't care
If someone else is there
Because I love you and only you
And I would hope you love me too!

So if you have any doubts,
Send them out,
Because our love is stronger
Than any other, and will last longer
Because I love you and only you
And I would hope you love me too!

Love For A Woman

A woman should be treated with care
And to those who dare
To be cruel and unfair
Hate must fill your air.

A woman who is beautiful and kind
And has a good state of mind
Is like a diamond when you find
You will tell yourself, "Oh, how I wish she was mine."

I know love is hell
But I promise to always treat you well
And never leave you to dwell
In a pit with pain and sorrow in which others have fell.

You, oh beautiful woman who has brought me to my knee,
How I beg of thee
To stay and always be with me
And I will forever make you happy.

Just To Be With You

You're always in my dreams,
And I know what that means.
It means I'm falling in love,
With someone who must be sent from heaven above.

You seem to be perfect in every way,
So what can I say,
To express how I feel,
About a girl who is so real.

You're stunning and full of life,
That you take away my hurt and strife,
Cause you make me happy with little things you do,
And that's why I long just to be with you.

My Perfect Mate

You see my faults but love me anyways
And you have sweet and wonderful things to say
About us
Cause we are a total plus.
You back me up in things I do
And never criticize to make me blue.
You make me happy when I'm sad,
You stick with me no matter how much I make you mad.
You promise to be my friend
And that you'll love me till the end.
You know how to turn me on
And we can be together without doing anything wrong.
You make my heart tender and mild
But you can also make it beat wild.
You can light up my life with a smile
And your love can go a long while.
You make me feel safe
When I'm in your warm embrace.
You share my interest; you share my goals
And hey, who knows
Maybe we'll be together
Always and forever
Cause I don't believe in fate
But I believe YOU'RE my perfect mate!

I Want to Get Married

I want to get married; I'm tired of living alone.
I can't stand always being on my own.
I want someone I can hold,

And together we can grow old.

I have a lot of love to give
So you'll always have love as long as I live.
I promise to be true
To you and only you.

You never have to doubt
What my love's about
Because you'll see
"True Love" whenever you're with me.

So I want to get married, that's a fact,
To a girl like you who's a class act
And you'll know my love will always be
Just so long, as you'll have me.

Me Now

Back when it was just me
I use to be
One who would look for a fight
But you made me see the light.
And what I was like before
I am not anymore
Because you turned my life around
When you took away my frown.

You gave me the chance
To feel some romance
In my life again
When we became more than friends.
Now I'm happier than ever
And I know I'll stay this way forever
Just as long as I'll have you,
And you'll have me too.

Missing

I woke up this morning
And something was wrong.
I don't know what it is,
But the feeling is strong.

There's something missing
And it's making me sad.
I don't know what it is,
Maybe something I lost, I once had.

No, that wasn't it,
I hadn't lost anything.
Something wasn't here
And then I got to thinking.

I looked around,
Everything was in place,
Then I looked in the mirror
With surprise on my face.

I said, "What could it be
That's missing today,
It's making me feel empty
In a very weird way."

I looked around once more
And I saw I was alone.
Then it hit me,
Why I felt on my own.

I had gotten use to you
Always being near.
So now I know why I feel empty,
It's because you're not here.

My Heart

My heart is big and full of love,
Love for the woman I'm always dreaming of.
My heart has love for other people too
But none greater than the love for you.
You can make it beat wildly
Or beat very mildly
Because your love causes my heart to rejoice
That I have no other choice
But to show you how much I care
And to promise I'll always be there.
You can bet I'm ready to start
Loving you with all my heart.

A Realization

As we looked into each other's eyes
Something was a glow.
It was a feeling that it both you and I
So hard that we just didn't know
That, that was the night
To put all other nights to shame,
That was the night

We knew we felt the same.

I said, "I love you."
And you said you loved me.
Our feelings were so true,
They were as honest as can be
That I knew my search was over,
I finally found the one.
We cried on each other's shoulder
Because we were so happy over what we just done.

We realized we belong together
And nothing can keep us apart
Because our love should last forever
Right here from the start.
So if you love me
As much as I love you
Promise to always stay with me
By saying, "I Do!"

A Rainbow

A rainbow, with its many colors, is beautiful indeed,
But its beauty can not my soul feed.
It can not quench my thirst for love
By just hanging over me high above.
Your love on the other hand is something else,
I value it more than any wealth,
For it can make me feel good inside
And it's something I'll never subside.
It's true; a rainbow does bring joy into my life,
But not as much as the joy of you being my wife.

I Really Do

I'm angry and I'm hurt
Cause I hate being treated like dirt.
I let you say things I don't like
Then we get into a fight.
Just because I care about you,
I try all I can do
To cheer you up and lighten your load
And give you happiness to hold.
Even if in life you don't want to hold my hand
I'll still do all that I can Cause I love you, I really do
And I really do care about you.

Respect

A woman deserves respect
And not to be decked.
Anyone who would do such a thing
Has nothing to hold on to or cling
On the cliff of life
Cause he makes a woman feel like she's cut with a knife.
So any man who treats a woman with no respect
He himself deserves to get decked.

Rest Of My Days

I keep holding on,
And with each passing moment my love grows strong,
So when I find who I'm looking for
I will love her forever and ever more.

You won't be able to get rid of me
Cause I promise to be
The one who will always love you
And there's nothing I'd rather do.

I've waited my whole life for true love,
And you've got to be sent from heaven above,
Cause no one can be perfect in so many ways,
That you make me want to love you for the rest of my days.

Show Her You Love Her

You have to take her by the hand
And tell her you love her,
That you'll always be her man,
Offering your ear and shoulder.
You have to take her in your arms
And stare into her face
Show her all your charm
With your warm loving embrace.
Look deep into her eyes
And you will see
Love in her eyes
That can last an eternity.
So show her you love her, with all your heart and soul
And you can bet she'll never let you go.

Sights Compared To You

I've been from one coast to the other; I've seen it all,

The Rockies, canyons, hills, and waterfalls,
But there's one sight that still amazes me,
And that's your beauty, oh what a sight to see.

I've seen the sun rise and set over mountains and hills,
And there is no way to describe how it feels,
But as breath taking as it may be,
You'll always be the breath taker I long to see.

The ocean, strong, with the purest blue,
Its strength and beauty is no match compared to you.
The Red Woods are tall and mighty,
Yet, it's nothing next to the love between you and me.

So I've seen a lot on this beautiful green earth,
And let me tell you for what it's worth,
I don't think I'll find anything as special as you,
Cause words or sights could never compare to things you say and do.

Woman I Love

She has her faults,
But one of them was not stealing my heart.
Love fills me evermore,
And she is the one I'd die for.
I don't know why I feel this way but that's okay,
Cause I don't have anything about it to say.
When around her a feeling is given,
One that I'm in heaven.

I can't forget her for each time I try,
I break down and cry
And I can't sleep at night
Without holding her tight.
She's always in my head
And if I lose her I know I'd rather be dead
Cause when I look into her eyes
It fills my heart with joy and surprise.

The Love For A Woman

The love for a woman can make a man strong
Even make him write poetry or songs.
It can make him happy or it can make him sad
And with just one look she can make him glad.

The love for a woman can make a man fight
Just so he can hold her tight.
The love for a woman makes him feel safe

When he's in her loving embrace.

The love for a woman can make a man cry,
It can also lift him so high
That he can touch a star
No matter how close, near or far.

The love for a woman can drive a man insane,
It can cause him great hurt or it can ease his pain.
The love for a woman can make him feel good
In ways no one else ever could.

The love for a woman can make a man stand tall
And feel that he can conquer all,
So there's only one thing that can change a man
And that's the love for a woman.

When I'm With You

I hurt inside but do not know why
I have no reason but I want to cry.
I act happy when I'm really blue
I want to hide but there's nowhere to run to.
Sometimes I feel sad
But nothing in my life has gone bad.
I guess I want someone to hold
And someone whom I can grow old.
But don't worry cause there's one time I'm not blue
And that's when I'm with you.

Your Beauty

People have nothing but nice things to say
Cause your beauty is not one seen every day.
Things may be changing fast
But your beauty is one that will always last.

The Silhouette

I thought I saw a silhouette
Of a girl I once met.
It made me remember things I long forgot,
The memories rushed back and made me hot.
Hot with anger, hot with rage,
Hot with the things I lost with age.
The bad memories and the happy ones too,
Made me smile while I thought of you.

The silhouette I saw made me crazy
Cause I started thinking about you and me.
The way you made me laugh
The way you made me sad in the past.
Now I wish there was a way to end this pain
But the silhouette is making me go insane
Because I'm the only one who can see the silhouette
Of you and the night we met.

Someone Special

To someone special whom I love
When push turns to shove
You are always there for me
And will always treat me fair.
I want to say thank you
For everything you do
My loyalty to you is true
And I meant it, with all my heart, when I say I love you.

Hard As Steel

I've been alone
But I've never been lonely.
I've gotten by on my own
Cause that was just me.
Then you came along
And turned my life upside down.
I wasn't as strong
Unless you were around.

You brought me new joy,
You brought me new pain.
I felt like a little boy
Learning something I thought I could never obtain.
You showed me how to love
You showed me how to care
And I thank God above
That he gave me something so fair.

You brought happiness
Into my life
And with your sweet caress
I want to make you my wife
So I can spend
The rest of my days,
With someone who can bend
My hard as steel ways.

Thinking of You

You're always on my mind
And it's hard for me to find
Something to take my mind off of you
But it's impossible for me to do.

If you need me to be there
Just ask cause you know I care,
And when there's a tear in your eye
I'll do what I can so you won't cry.

You are very beautiful to me
And you truly are a sight to see.
When I'm with you I feel no pain
And with your sweet smile you're making me go insane.

I guess what I'm saying is I love you
And I hate being away from you.
So say you love me too
Cause I'm always thinking of you.

You're So Sweet

I can't help but to smile
Every once in a while
Cause you make me feel good
The way only you could.

You have a way of lighting up my life
And taking away all my hurt and strife.
That's why I like being around you
Cause when I am, I'm never blue.

I'm glad we're together
And I hope to stay forever.
Now I want to thank you for making my life complete
You're so sweet.

Those You Love

Those you love are those who care,
Those you love are those that are fair.
I wish we would never part
Or hurt one another's heart.

Those you love are those who dare,
Those you love fill the air.

You will always come and go
So please never think of me as a foe.

Those you love are there for you,
Those you love like you for everything you do.
I guess what I'm trying to say and it's hard to do
Is that I love you.

To Ruby: Who loved this poem so much she carried with everywhere, even to her grave.
Rest in peace forever sweet Ruby.
Till The End of Time

If you stay with me on this rough and bumpy road
I'll always be here to help you carry life's heavy load.
And when you turn around I'll be there
To walk hand in hand with you to show I care.

In my mind you're a beautiful sight
And when I'm with you everything feels so right.
There's no way that I can live without your love
Because all my life you've been the one I've been dreaming of.

I promise to stay with you through the years
Even if we have to share some tears.
So what I've been trying to say in this rhyme
Is that my love for you will stand till the end of time.

When We're Together

When we danced underneath the pale moon light
You looked so beautiful you were out of sight
That with every word you would say
You were always stealing my breath away.
So this thing between us is of
A force that can only be love
And we will stay together
Hopefully forever
But if it should fall apart
I know in my heart
That I was loved by you
And all my dreams had come true.

My Little Treasure

I've found a treasure that no one else can own
It's all mine, and mine alone.
I don't want to share,
No, I don't care.

Call me greedy
But this treasure is for me!
What is this treasure I've found?
As crazy as this may sound
My little treasure is you.
Yes, it's true,
I value you more than anything in the world
Because you're my girl.
I'll hold you close to my heart
So you can see right from the start
That I'm very sure
That you're my little treasure.

Can I Trust You With My Heart

I think you are wise
And is not a person who hides
Your feels of
A subject as powerful as love.
Cause of where I've been
I only want one person.
I think you are very smart so can I trust you with my heart?

My heart is something I hold dear
And it's my biggest fear
To go through life without love
But you're who I am dreaming of
And I want to hold you tight
Late into the night
Cause I don't want us to be apart
So again I ask you, can I trust you with my heart?

What I Can Give You

I wish I could give you the world
And everything you need
Cause you are a fine pearl
That I hold precious to me.

I'm only one simple man
Who doesn't have a lot,
But I know if you hold my hand
We can get by with what we got.

I won't promise the moon
Cause it's not mine to give.
You're like a flower that bloomed
And its love that makes it live.

I'm happy just being with you
And you being with me
Cause I know everything we do
We'll do it together for eternity.

You only need to know
That I may not have much in life
But I'll never let you go
If you become my wife.

What Are Friends For

I'm here to answer that age old question,
What are friends for?
If I may I'd like to mention
That friends don't walk out the door.

If you have a problem
I'll be here
So that we can solve 'em
With my listening ear.

When your day seems cloudy
And your life's full of rain,
Just call on me
And I'll take away that pain.

There's no problem too great
That we can't work out
Cause friends don't have hate
So they don't have doubt.

So my friend, we have a love
That will last forever and ever more
Because you comfort me with tender love
And that, my friend, is what friends are for.

To Whom I Love

To a girl so beautiful and smart
I pledge to you with all my heart
That I will never stop
Loving you, even when I drop.
My love for you is strong and wild
And will never turn mild.
When I'm with you I feel great
And I can have no hate.
To whom I love
Not even the stars above

Can match your inner beauty cause you're sweet
And if I laid the whole world at your feet
It could never be enough
For the one whom I love.

To: My Wife

To my wife
Who I pledge to you my life.
I promise I'll always be true
And I'll always be there for you.
If you need help just ask me
And you'll see
That I'm always by your side
Cause my feelings for you I can not hide.
I vow to stick with you till death do us part
And you'll have the key to my heart.
When I'm with you I have a blast
And if you think this love won't last
You can bet I'll still care,
Even with gray in your hair,
Cause we fit together like a hand in a glove
And we're bound together like by what can only be love.
So I pledge to love you for the rest of my life
You, who has become my wife.

The Wild One

You who are the "Wild One"
Never really gets things done.
You who are the "Wild One"
Likes to have fun.

The "Wild One" never breaks down
Or ever wears a frown.
The "Wild One" is always on the go
And is never too slow.

The "Wild One" waste no time
Having one self in mind.
The "Wild One" never stays in one place
They just fly around like an Ace.

The Working Girl

A working girl is a woman of time,
A hard working person with her boss in mind.
A working girl knows what she wants

And is someone pure at heart.

A working girl who looks so fine
And lips taste like strawberry wine
Gets everything done
Whither or not it's fun.

A working girl, sexy and true
Is always there for you.
She will always do her best
Just so her boss can rest.

You

I love to hear the sound of your voice
And play with your long beautiful hair.
I'm glad I made the right choice,
To show you how much I care.

You're very beautiful, as beautiful as can be
And you're very smart.
It's all a part of your personality
That has stolen my heart.

The way you make me feel
Is so unreal
Cause I never knew love could be like this
And you can bet it's something I can never miss.

So you may not have the perfect body
Or the perfect face
But when you're with me
I long to be in no other place.

You Are

You are smart and funny
And sweeter than honey.

You are gentle and kind
And have a good frame of mind.

You are so full of love
That you have been sent from heaven above.

You are my dream come true
That's why I'm in love with you.

If you have any doubt, let me assure you by far

All these things you are!!!

Torn

The poetry in this section spans from September 96 to December 96. I met someone who changed me forever. I stopped behaving like a child and grew up quickly. I wanted to be a better person because she believed I could be. I wanted to conquer the world because she said I should. I wanted to be loved because she said I deserved to be. I only knew her love briefly but I was grateful for every second. "The LORD giveth and the LORD taketh away."

Your Love

When I promise to love you, forever is what I mean
And forever is what you'll get, no matter how hard it may seem.
I don't ever plan to leave you
Cause that would make me blue.

I wish there was a way to let you know
How I love you so
But nothing comes to mind
So I guess I'll stay with you till the end of time.

See, you make me happy when I'm mad
And brighten my day when I'm sad.
There's nothing I could ever do to repay your gentleness
Except love you with tender kindness.

I could never leave a love like yours
That, for me, opens new doors
To places I've never been
Places that feel like heaven.

Love Is...

Love is something from the heart
That you feel right from the start.
You know you've found someone to care about.
And you feel it deep down inside without a doubt.

Love is a strange feeling inside
And it's something you really can't hide,
Because even though it's inside of you
It shines through in all you do.

Love is very strong
Something people describe in poems or songs
That tell how they feel
Because they know it's real.

Love is wild and runs free
And it makes you long to be
Back in each other's warm embrace
Wanting to be in no other place.

Love is something beyond compare
But something that you share
With the one you hold dear
And always want to be near.

Love is sweet and kind,

Leaving you in a good frame of mind.
Love is me and you,
Together doing the things we do.

You Shine

You shined like a starry night
In your gown of black and white.
You look so beautiful standing there
Like you don't have a care
And that look takes my breath away
Because I think of you every day.

You're beautiful and smart
And I have a good heart.
That's hard to find,
Beauty and a good mind,
But you're not like anyone I know
Because you have that certain glow
That draws me to you
And made me fall madly in love with you.

I Shine

I shine
Because I know in my mind
That I've found someone dear
Whom I care deeply about and want near.

She is kind, gentle, and sweet
And has swept me off my feet.
I don't know what I'd do if she wasn't around,
I'd probably always wear a frown.

When I see her she brightens my day
And takes all my cares away.
She has a certain glow
That no one else can ever have or know.

This girl, that is so wonderful to me,
Can only be,
You,
So I shine because my dear I love you.

Will You Marry Me?

You're special to me,
Without you I can never be

As strong as I am
Because my strength comes from you holding my hand.

You're everything I'll ever need
So this to you I gladly plead,
Stay with me for the rest of my life,
Will you marry me and become my wife?

Heart With You

I think about you every day and night,
I dream of holding you tight.
I see your face everywhere I go
And I know
It's because I love you
And there's nothing I'd rather do
Then my life to share
With a person I truly care
About,
Without a doubt
Because all I want you to be
Is happy.
What I'm saying is you're always on my mind
But I find
That it's something I like to do
Because then I know my heart's with you.

Love Conquers All

Love is not all knowing
But it keeps us going
Strong
All day long.

Love empowers us to do
Whatever we need to
Everyday
Without delay.

Love comes from the heart
And it makes us smart
Toward one another's needs
And our soul does feed.

Love is the greatest by far
Bigger than any star.
Love does not fall
Because love conquers all!

In My Heart

Yes, I have the nerve
To say you got the curves
That can make me lose my mind
Over a girl so fine.

You have a beautiful face
And a warm embrace.
You make my heart skip a beat,
Because you're so sweet.

You make me happy
Because you love me for me.
Without a doubt
Your beauty stands out.

I don't know why you love me the way you do
But nothing can keep me from you.
I promise to love you right now, from the start
With everything in my heart.

Hurry Back

You are always there for me,
Tender when you want to be,
To love me with all of your might,
To hold me in your arms so tight.

My love runs so strong and true,
I will always be here for you.
You know how to treat me,
You can always make me happy.

I love the way you bring a smile to my face
When I'm in your warm embrace.
I can't stand being away from you
So hurry back so I can be with you.

She Gives Herself

She always on the go
Helping everyone she knows.
She lends a helping hand
To all those she can.
Her heart is always in the right place
And you can see it in her sweet face.
She's always there

For the ones she loves, she takes care.
She always gives of herself
Never putting others on the shelf.
So no matter what, I can only say positive things,
And every one I mean
Cause she is a woman who deserves all the love
That can come from God above.

How Do I Know

How do I know
I'll never let you go?
That my love for you is real?
Well my heart's not made of steel
So, love is in my heart.
I never want us to part
Because you've become a part of me
And you make me very happy.
What can I say?
You take my breath away
Because you return my love
By the way you shove
All my problems aside.
That's how I truly feel inside.
You set my heart a glow
That's why I'll never let you go.

What I Do

What I do
Is love you.
It's not anything I need to say
Cause I try to show it every day.
About you I still care
And I want to share
The rest of my life with you
And that's what I do.

What I say
I say in no other way
Because with great surprise
I see love for me in your eyes.
It melts my heart to mush
And makes my cheeks blush.
I have found love in no other place
Than in your warm embrace.

Things I See

Things I see in you
Are things to be.
Little things you say or do
Can make me happy.

The things I see,
Like the love you show,
Are things no one else can see
For that I'll never let you go.

Things I see
In your beautiful face
Are things to me
That I hold in a special place.

The things I see in your eyes
Are wonderful indeed,
And you fill my heart with surprise
By fulfilling my needs.

Something Special

I can see
The love in your eyes.
The love for me
That I will never deny.

It's a love so sincere and true
And there's nothing I'd rather do
Then to hold you in my arms so tight
And love you all through the night.

I can see something special here
When our love draws us near
Because I've never felt this way
With so many wonderful things to say.

Happy We Will Always Be

I love you
And no one can take that from me.
If someone should try to
A failure they will be.

No matter how long,
We may be apart
My love for you grows strong
Deep in my heart.

Times may get rough
But you're not alone,
Cause no matter how tough
You don't have to do it on your own.

So remember, I love you
And no one can take that from me.
If you will love me too
Then happy we will always be.

Who Is This Person

Who is this person
Who turned my life around?
Who is this person
Who planted my feet on the ground?

Who is this person
Who has changed my life?
Who is this person
Who takes away my strife?

Who is this person
Who holds my heart in her hand?
Who is this person
Who me, understands?

Who is this person
Whom I hold dear?
Who is this person
Who I always want near?

Who is this person
Whose heart is always true?
Well this person
My love, can only be you!

Forever

Forever is something you hear everyday
From young lovers who say,
"My love will last so strong and true,
Strong for you and only you."
They know that what they feel
Is so real
Because love lifts their spirits up high,
So high that they can touch the sky
And they truly are happy

When their love is where they want to be.
But our "Forever" is something else
Something that no one has ever felt
And it guides us through our life,
Through all the turmoil and strife,
That we may go through
Me and you
Because we love each other with a passion and fire
And our desire
Is to live for one another,
Now and forever.

Forever Long

There are things I may have to give up for you
And do I regret the things I do?
No, because I do them out of love,
Love, because you're who I'm dreaming of.

My love makes me do things
Who to others may not seem
Like anything to brag about
But I know you love me without a doubt.

Hard times will come and go
But as long as you know
That I'll always be here for you,
Always, always loving you true.

So you need not fret
Because I have no worries or regrets.
Now our love can grow strong
And last forever long.

I Miss You So Much

I miss you so much that I can't think.
My heart is so heavy that it sinks
Way down deep and low
And my world turns very slow.

I miss you so much, I wish you were here.
I hate not having you near.
I go crazy and start pulling my hair
Because for you, so much, I care.

I miss you so much that I break down and cry
Because the love we have, you and I,
Is strong and bold

That it will last the time it's been put on hold.

I miss you so much I don't know what to do.
All I do is sit around and miss you.
But I know one day I'll have you again
And I'll hold on to you till my end.

In Love

You're a sweet and wonderful person
Who has touched my heart,
And it's amazing too
Because we're so far apart.

The distance between us
May be huge
But your love
Is something I don't want to lose.

It's amazing how good
You make me feel.
When you say you love me
I know it's real.

I can see the love in your eyes
That comes from inside of you
And it makes me know
That I'm in love with you too.

I Give You My Heart

I measure my success,
Unlike all the rest,
Because my success depends on you,
Being truly happy and not blue.

I don't have to be a star,
Own a big house, or drive a fancy car.
All I have to do
Is forever love you.

I may be as poor as poor can be
But I know you'll still have me
Because we have a bond unlike no other
That will last from now till forever.

I see it every time you look at me
That our love will always be
And we will never part,

So for all that I give you my heart.

My Rose

My rose is a sweet and precious flower
That has bloomed in such a way
That it's beauty is so astounding
It takes my breath away.

My rose is special
And very rare.
When I hold it
I can feel love in the air.

My rose is fragile
Yet very strong.
It can withstand Fate's winds
And never be gone.

My rose has beauty
That I hold dear
Its beauty comes from within
And you can feel it very near.

My rose is someone special
Whose love, deep in my heart grows.
You, my love
Are my special rose.

Thankful For You

They say that the LORD works in mysterious ways
And I see it everyday
When I look at you
And feel your love so true.

For what it's worth
I consider myself the luckiest man on earth.
Because throughout life's crazy ride
You're always standing there by my side.

I don't know how I got you
But I'm glad because I'm no longer blue.
I'm not Superman
But with you beside me, anything I want to do I know I can.

So, the LORD does work in mysterious ways
And I thank him everyday
Because out of everything I do

I am most thankful for you.

Guy Magnet

I can see guys drooling all over you,
They get so crazy they don't know what to say or do.
They're in shock from what they see,
They're in shock from your beauty.

Guys you always hook
With your sweet and innocent look.
Too hard they try
Whenever they look into your eyes.

They don't have the right words to say
To take your breath away
But through it all you endure
In hopes to meet that special one for sure.

True, you have beauty like no other,
That can draw a crowd of guys together
But you know that somebody, maybe
You will be some lucky man's smart, sexy lady.

Be My Queen

I only ask of you one thing,
Will you, forever be my queen?
Please say yes,
Because I must confess
That I think about you day and night,
And in my heart it feels so right.
This love between you and I
That I can see so deeply in your eyes,
Is so devastating to me
Because of the glow I see
Coming from deep in your heart,
And that's the spark
That started this fire,
A fire burning with such desire
That I can feel
Our love is real.
So, again I ask you one thing,
Will you, forever be my queen?

Treat Her With Respect

Treat her with respect

And you can expect
That she will love you
With a love so strong and true.

Show her you care
And she will share
Everything in her heart
Knowing you will never part.

Give her all your love
And she becomes the girl you're dreaming of
Because she will do all she can
To make you happy and hold your hand.

So tender love and devotion,
Bigger than all the oceans,
You can expect
If you treat her with love and respect.

I Swear To You

I swear to you my love,
But do I swear by the moon above,
For its shape changes everyday
And so, does my love change the same way?
No, but I swear by my heart and soul
That you will always know
I love you more than life itself
And no amount of wealth
Can take you from me,
Cause I swear to always be
Here when you call,
To pick you up if you should fall.
I'm not sure how to say this to you,
But I swear that my love will always be true.

A True Beauty Sonnet

Beauty I hath not seen till today,
Nor have I been short of breath,
For others do say
That true beauty is heaven sent.
If that is true
An angel you must be
For I see true beauty in you
Along with the love you posses for me,
For I long to be in no other place,
Feeling your body next to mine,
Being swept away by your warm embrace

And having peace of mind
For I know true love is here to stay
For I have seen true beauty this day.

She Knows What Love Is

She knows what love is,
She knows how warm it can feel,
She knows what it can give,
She knows when it's real.

She knows the moon up above
Can't tell her a thing.
She knows all about love,
And that it's more than just a ring.

Love runs deep in her heart,
Bringing more than riches and wealth.
Love runs steep right from the start,
Wanting nothing else.

She doesn't want much from life,
She has a lot to give.
She wants to be a wife
And feel what love is.

Afraid

I see you across the way
And I wish there were words for me to say
How I feel about you
But the words are so very few.

I talk to you all the time,
All the while, having love on my mind
But I'm afraid to express
My feelings, because I'm a mess.

We are good friends
And I don't want that to end
But I want to be something more
But I'm afraid you'll walk out the door.

I think about you day and night,
Knowing you are the light
I need you in my life
To help take away my hurt and strife.

I guess what I'm getting at

Is that
I want to love you
And I want you to love me too.

I Would Write

I would write you a love song
But that would do no good
For the music never would Be very strong.

I would write you a poem
To show that I care
About you, my love, who is so fair,
But it would be too far from home.

I would write you a love letter
And pour out my heart
But no matter how I start
I know that you are my better.

I would write anything for you
But the words are never right.
So I hold you tight
As, in your ear, I whisper, I love you.

At A Wedding

As I sit here watching this glorious event
I know this is something heaven sent.
The joining of a woman and a man,
Holding each other's hand,
And with love in their face
They say I do without any haste.

As I watch this I turn and look at you
And I remember what I want to do.
I want to take you and hold you tight,
Loving you with all my might.
As I watch your radiant glow,
Love for you in my heart grows.

As we watch the bride and groom,
Hand in hand, leave the room
We look at each other and say,
That will be us someday.
So as we leave, once again I declare, I love you,
And long for the day you say, I do.

Stay With Me

I seen you across the room
And like a big broom
You swept me off my feet
With a feeling I could never beat.
So I walk over to talk to you
But my tongue got tied, I didn't know what to do.
You put your hand on my shoulder to calm me down
And your smile turned my fear around,
I remember how to talk again
Because my fear finally came to an end.
We laughed the whole night through,
I found myself falling in love with you
So now I ask you tonight,
With all my might,
I want to be with you,
So please say you want to be with me too.

Scare A Man

There are not many things that can scare a man
To the point where shaky are his hands.
He can look at death and laugh in his face
And run to danger without haste.
He can do things that are so crazy,
Then he can become lazy,
But no matter how tough or strong he may be
There will always be something he finds scary.

A woman can make a man scared inside,
No matter how big his pride.
His fear is that she's not happy
So he works hard to be
The one thing that makes her smile,
Even if it's for a little while.
So love is something that can scare a man
To the point where shaky are his hands.

You're So Wonderful

I get blown away
Every time I look at you
And I wish there were words to say
But none do justice to you.

You make me happy
Every time you're near

And I want the whole world to see
That I hold you dear.

You're always on my mind,
And in my heart.
You're the one I find
I never want to part.

You're so wonderful
You're everything I've looked for.
You're so wonderful
And I could never want any more.

You Truly Are Beautiful

You truly are beautiful,
When you smile your sweet smile.
You truly are beautiful,
Because you always go the extra mile.

You truly are beautiful,
Cause you look good in anything.
You truly are beautiful,
Even without all the wonders life may bring.

You truly are beautiful,
You take my breath away.
You truly are beautiful,
And it shines through every day.

You truly are beautiful,
There's nothing else I can say or do.
You truly are beautiful,
And that's why I love you.

Fighting For You

Why must I always
Have to fight for you?
It happens every day
And there's nothing I can do.
Men are always calling,
Trying to get your attention
But their efforts keep falling
Because they never ever mention
Anything about how you feel,
Like the way I do.
I know your feelings are real
Because I truly love you.

We possess something
They never will
Cause with just a little thrill
Each other's life we fill.

God's Gift

God gives us gifts from above,
Like joy, happiness, and love.
Beauty in all things,
The flowers and the birds when they sing.
The mountains and seas,
The sky so blue for all to see.
Wonderful foods to eat,
The dirt beneath our feet.
The animals that play,
With us every day.
But of all the gifts God gives,
There's only one that I live
For,
And I couldn't ask for more
Because of all the gifts HE gave me,
You're the only one that completes me.

Here With Me

I'm going insane
Because you're always on the brain.

It's really hard to start
Anything because you're in my heart.

There's really nothing I can do
Because all my thoughts are of you.

Truthfully there's nowhere else I'd rather be
Than you here with me.

Chaos

All of life is CHAOS. Complete opposites living together and circling each other round and round. Up is down, left is right, light is dark, they ALL make up who we are.

Since I stopped dating my poetry after high school all I can do is throw them out there as random chaos. They are not in any type of order so you will have a giant mixture of light and dark poetry, humorous and sad, once again, showing us what life is all about.

So I Cry

As the rain falls upon my head
I'm reminded of you.
I can see your face
I can smell your hair.
There's nothing I can do about it and so I cry.

I can't move
Letting the rain hide my tears.
Why did you leave?
Why did you go?
I know I can never have you back and so I cry.

The rain is so cold
But it does not help to numb the pain.
I stand here soak and wet
The rain stays, it won't go away.
You loved the rain, and so I cry.

Another year has gone by.
I return back to this place.
I lay down your flowers
I kiss your headstone and turn to leave.
"I miss you my love," and so I cry.

Beauty and The Beast

You are so beautiful
Of that there is no doubt
You have a gentle soul
And you look so cute when you pout.

You are so kind
To everyone you meet.
Others want you for themselves
Me they want to defeat.

Cause you are in love with a beast
Ugly as can be
With a dark wounded soul
How can you love someone like me?

Broken

It always happens,
Never fails.
I let myself be happy,
Then life on me bails.

My foundation is rocked
My world comes tumbling down.
I no longer want to live
I want a home in the ground.

My life is over
The light is going dim
Cold and darkness surround me
Finally the end.

Life returns
But not to finish the job.
It's come to torture me some more
Beating me down like a slob.

I am a warrior
Who has been beaten to the core.
Without my love
I can not fight anymore.

I am too strong to die
Too weak to take my own life.
Beaten yet again
I deserve no children or wife.

Against any enemy I can fight
Defeating any man
But without you, my love
Alone I can not stand.

No matter what may be said
Fact is I am broken.
I am nothing without you
You have the last word, you have spoken.

Demons

You see them all around you,
They follow you everywhere you go.
The Demons inside
Claim they want your soul.

You look to God
But they tell you He's not there.
All you want is happiness,
The Demons show you life's not fair.

You try to ignore them
So they back off a bit.

They lurk in the shadows,
Striking hard when you least expect it.

You cry for help,
Thousands of people around but no one hears your call.
The Demons have you,
You no longer stand proud or tall.

The Demons taunt you,
They keep calling your name.
In your head they are laughing,
Knowing they are driving you insane.

You can't stand your life anymore,
You feel you have to perform this great sin.
Death is your only chance for peace
So your life you take, you end.

I hope you find what you were looking for
But there is one thing about me where you were wrong.
I dearly loved you my friend,
And I wish you peace, safe, now that your Demons are gone.

Evil Death

Into the abyss of Hades I descend
As my heart turning cold begins.
I died inside; I am frozen to the core
I shall love no more.

You hurt me badly, wounding me deep
Now all I want is to forever sleep.
What do you have to say
For killing me in such an evil way?

Fallen Angel

I am an Angel
Fallen far from Grace.
I cover myself with my wings,
Too horrified to see my face.

Evil crept in
I am no longer pure.
I am alone
And I must endure.

My wings are black
My heart is dark.

I have been cursed
From birth I have had the mark.

This curse,
Keeps others away.
I reach out for contact,
Begging for someone to stay.

But my touch is deadly,
No one will come near.
I am meant to roam alone,
Alone is what I fear.

So the shadows becomes my home,
There is where I belong.
The coldness surrounds me
Alone this curse can do no harm.

I may have been born an Angel
Being good was to be my calling.
Save yourself, run far away,
For I have fallen.

Going Crazy

I'm weak, I'm dying
I can't stop crying.
Death and his demons are real
His coldness I can feel.

Cold and empty I feel inside
I know I'm drifting to the dark side.
The pain is growing stronger everyday
I just want it to go away.

I don't want to go crazy
But the meds make me lazy.
I don't know what to do
Do I give in and live life blue?

Ghost of the Past

Ever had a ghost from the past
Haunt your very soul.
Every time you thought of them
Tears run down your face and you must go.

It's not fair
To you love rushed.

And each time you see them
You can't breathe cause your chest is crushed.

Words can not tell
What you are feeling inside.
You want to scream out to the world,
You want to run and hide.

I love you, I love you
This I gladly shout.
Even now, we may be apart
But my ghost I love you without a doubt.

Hold You

I am not meant for love,
It has no place in my heart.
If it lingers for too long,
It will surely die by the dark.

My soul is black as coal,
My heart turns cold.
Love can not survive,
It will always be this way even when I'm old.

I am meant to live in the shadows,
Roam this Earth alone.
Life has forsake me,
It has left me on my own.

I can try to love,
But what good would it do?
I know that no matter what I do in this world,
I can never hold you.

I AM Lost

I am lost without you
I don't know which way to go.
My world is upside down
My heart has been ripped from its soul.

You are the light
That guides me through it all.
You are the love
Without you I only fall.

You complete me
My heart for you does yearn

I am truly lost without you
I don't know which way to turn.

Kiss My Ass

You had your chance
But you let me slip away
I was hopelessly devoted to you
Hanging on every word you had to say.

You took me for granted
You treated me really bad
You never understood
What I thought we had.

Now that I'm gone
I've found someone new
They treat me like I deserve
Nothing like you.

They love me, heart and soul
To them I am first class.
So don't bother me again
Oh, by the way, KISS MY ASS!!

Little Boy

Why long for what I can not have?
Looking at your picture makes me sad.
I know I will never have love in my life
You will not come to me and be my wife.

It's the attention you seek, we all do
All my attention I give to you.
But it will never be good enough
Who am I kidding, I am no diamond in the rough.

I ruin lives, this I know
Because of it I drive people away real slow.
You are better off without me, I seem to always bring you pain
Nothing I do is ever good enough and it's driving me insane.

My heart can't take much more of this, so I cry
I will go crawl under a rock and die.
I hope you have a happier life full of joy
You can have a man now, not a little boy.

Lost

Sitting alone in the dark
I look deep within.
Coldness is all I find,
Pain that will never end.

I want to be held,
I want to feel love.
Others have one,
Where is my Angel from above?

Am I cursed?
Why am I all alone?
I want to stay in one place,
I do not want to roam?

I want to go home,
I don't know where that may be.
I am so scared,
Is there no place safe for me?

Love... The Enemy

I know love all too well
It is like the arrow of William Tell.
It is not meant for me
But if it misses, in pain I will be.

Love was never a friend
It would always hurt me in the end.
Its wounds would run deep
The only comfort I received was in my sleep.

So I wish for DEATH to come
As my heart turns cold and numb.
Love has toyed with me once more
Leaving my heart lying, bleeding onto the floor.

Monster

I'm a monster
Deep down inside.
Cruelty can live
Kindness has nowhere to hide.

I will destroy myself
Brining on great pain.
My heart in agony,
My mind going insane.

My soul is dark
To this there is only truth.
Inside I am dead,
Boxed up in this booth.

I don't think I can love
Safe guard your heart.
I know you will hurt me
The arrows I will dart.

If not for pain,
I would feel nothing at all.
I am a Monster
Meant to roam Hell's Hall.

My Dark Angel

My Dark Angel
Whether it be Heaven or Hell,
Whether you chose to come here,
Or if you Fell,
You are a wonderious being
A soul like no other.
You are the essence of sin
We shall rule the Universe together.
My Dark Angel,
So full of Grace,
You have a tortured soul
Yet a warm loving embrace.
Never leave me,
NEVER let me go.
You are my Dark Angel
I give myself to you, consume my soul.

My Sins

There is no way
I can atone for my sins
The things I've done,
The places I've been.

I don't know why
I've cheated and lied.
It didn't matter
Hurting those I cared about inside.

I've fought for no other reason
Than to inflict pain.

Being mean and vicious,
On parades I've caused it to rain.

Darkness has crept over me,
Coldness becoming a friend.
Evil consuming my heart,
Destroying it from end to end.

My Trip

My heart has been broken again
I knew it was meant to be.
Happiness and love
Does not want to get to know me.

I'm in my own personal HELL
I'm on a journey toward the Dark Side
Time to strap in
This is going to be one kick ass ride.

There is no amount of drugs
That can ease this great pain.
The hurt is too deep
Leaving my soul with this huge stain.

Am I doomed to this life,
Of solitude and despair.
It sure seems that way
Life for me was never fair.

Reject From Hell

I was a reject from Hell
The moment I fell
Out of my mamma's womb.
No one wants me
The world despises me
My life is nothing but doom.

I am a reject from Hell
Sent to tell
The world of my pain.
Rejection is my friend
It knows where I've been
Cause it drives me insane.

I am a reject from Hell
My head is not well
I am wounded in the heart.

The blade of love pierced deep
My tears fall even in my sleep
Because you chose to part.

Sinking

Once again
Alone I sit.
Heartbroken and torn,
My heart no longer fit.

In your arms,
I long to be.
But there is nothing but distance,
Distance that is killing me.

You say you love me,
But how can I tell.
For half the time we talk,
Something is not well.

Into myself I collapse
Knowing the darkness will come.
Alone I sit,
Drowning in Coke and Rum.

The Dark Side

The Dark Side is coming,
Coming for me.
I know it's close
Its Demons I can see.

The Dark Side knows
How I truly feel.
Inside I'm slowly dying
The Dark Side is real.

Once it's here
There is no turning back.
It steals your very soul
Your heart it turns black.

There is no escape
You will be caught.
You will surrender
No matter how hard you fought.

The Dark Side is huge

Evil lives in this place.
It feeds off of the fears
That you can not face.

The Dark Side is here
I can feel it in my head.
The Dark Side has won
I AM DEAD!

They Are Coming

The Demons are coming,
They're in my head.
They only want one thing,
For me to be dead.

I can hear them,
Everywhere I go.
They are poisoning my heart,
Killing me real slow.

They tell me I'm no good
That no one wants me around.
All I cause is pain
I belong in the ground.

The Demons beat me
Day and night.
They keep me in the dark,
I will die if I go to the light.

They will never give up,
The Demons will win.
They tell me no one will miss me
In the end.

I have tried to love
But LOVE runs away.
The Demons are right
I have nothing more to say.

It's true
I've brought you nothing but pain.
Death is my only answer
THE DEMONS HAVE DRIVEN ME INSANE.

Will Not Give

Alone in the dark

I sit and cry.
I long to have you
And I don't know why.

Why does this life
Torture me so?
You're all I want
To make me whole.

They say I can't love
But I feel it deep down.
Everything I do is nothing,
If you're not around.

You make me a better person
Giving me a reason to live.
So why do I sit here and cry?
Your love to me you will not give.

Why Would Anyone

Why would anyone want
Such a hideous creature as me
I am no prize to look at
As you can clearly see.

Seems I'm really good
At causing you harm.
My weapon of choice?
I kill you softly with my charm.

I'm a monster to the core
Of that there is no doubt
Your heart fills with terror
As you begin to shout.

Beauty knows no bound
As she teases me each day
Tormenting me with the thought of love
Only to yank it swiftly away.

Is it any wonder
That you look at me and cry
I am wounded by the heart
Creating a monster such as I.

Why would anyone want
Such a creature as me?
I am no prize to look at
As you can clearly see.

Wounded

My heart now bleeds
The wound you gave me runs deep.
You haunt my thoughts
Day and night, even in my sleep.

I feel so cold,
I am alone.
My heart aches,
Knowing once again I'm on my own.

We talked, we laughed
I was happy, having fun.
But deep down I knew it would not last
I knew soon we would be done.

To you I was not
Worth a drop in a cup.
Thanks to you
On finding love I have given up.

Addicted To You

I see your face
Everywhere I go.
I'm addicted to you
And I thought you should know.

I think about you
Day and night.
I'm addicted to you
And that fills me with fright.

To give you my heart
That has been broken many times before.
But I'm addicted to you
And can not walk out that door.

I want to give myself to you
Heart, body, and soul.
I'm addicted to you
Without you I am not whole.

You say you love me
And forever you will stay.
I'm addicted to you
And you feel the same way.

Chasing You

From the day we met
And you first said hello
You started a fire
Deep down inside my soul.

Every time we parted
I could not wait to see you again.
We were becoming close,
We were more than just friends.

Now the L word is involved
And it scares you to death.
You're afraid
I'm going to hurt you like the rest.

I tell you things about me
Things no one else knows.
Your feelings for me are changing
But you're still afraid I'll run away and go.

I won't give up though
I'll keep doing what I do.
You are worth the pursuit
I'm never going to stop chasing you.

The Dance

The music begins to play
A slow song like no other
You take her in your arms
Floating on the dance floor, light as a feather.

You hold her close
You inhale her perfume'
Next thing you know
You're the only two in the room.

You smell her hair deeply
As you sway all around
You embrace
By love you are bound.

A word is never spoken
As your lips find one another
This moment is frozen in time
A memory to last forever.

Passion consumes you
You never had a chance.
Your heart surrendered to love
At the beginning of the dance.

Dancing in the Rain

I spread my arms wide
And raise my face to the sky.
I close my eyes
Taking a deep breath, I sigh.

The rain begins to fall,
Soft and gentle at first.
Cooling, soothing,
Then it opens into a downburst.

I laugh, I smile
As I begin to swirl around.
Let the rain wash away my fears,
Let the rain fall down.

You say I'm crazy
As I pull you out with me.
I hold you close and we dance,
Happiness on your face I can see.

"I love you with all my heart
And I promise to never cause you pain."
We kiss with passion
As we dance in the rain.

Do I Bother You

Do I bother you?
Do I drive you up the wall?
Do I drive you crazy,
Every time I call?

Do I bother you,
When I talk about me and you?
Do I make you pull your hair,
When I say that my love is true?

Do I bother you?
Do I haunt the thoughts in your head?
Do I bother you in your dreams,
When you go to bed?

Do I bother you?
Do I drive you insane?
Do I make you tired,
When your energy I drain?

Do I bother you,
When I say you're whom I'm dreaming of?
Do I bother you,
When I say, "With you I'm falling in love?"

Do You Think of Me

Do you think of me often?
Do you see me everywhere you go?
Do I haunt your mind,
And feed your soul?
Do you think of me when you wake up?
Do you see me when you close your eyes?
Do you think of me,
Then realize
That someone cares for you,
Someone wants you near?
Do you think of me,
Vanishing away your fear?
Do you think of me,
As often as I think of you?
Do you think we should be together
To share a love so true?

Every Time

Every time I hear your voice
A smile spreads across my face.
Every time you whisper
It makes me shiver in place.

Every time you cross my mind
Happiness fills my very soul.
Every time you laugh
My heart feels whole.

Every time I make you cry
Sorrow I truly feel.
Every time I make you happy
I can see your love for me is real.

Every time you say you love me
I'm filled with energy anew.

Every time I'm near you
I feel I'm going to explode with love for you.

Every moment of everyday
Your presence is all around
You may be scared to show it
But TRUE LOVE you have finally found.

Feelings for You

You bring me joy
You bring me pain.
You make me laugh
You drive me insane.
But as we grow older
Who knows what life may bring.
I will always be here for you
To help you through anything.
Every moment we are together
I cherish it in my heart.
I love you
No matter if we're together or apart.

Filled with Love

There was a time I was happy,
That time was when I was with you.
I was always smiling,
I was never blue.

You left my life,
My world turned upside down.
But now you're back
And I'm glad you're around.

I call you every morning,
A new friendship is in bloom.
I can still make you laugh,
Joy and happiness fill the room.

You were my first true love,
You will always be special to me.
I still love you
But in a way I never thought could be.

I am happy
Just to be your friend.
I love talking to you
And can't wait till we can hang out again.

You have always brought me joy,
I can never thank you enough.
I'm happy we are friends
With a friendship filled with love.

I Gotta Find You

I'm on a journey. Nothing else matters until I find what I'm looking for. At night when I close my eyes you reveal yourself to me.
Everything is perfect except for one thing. I long to see your face yet you hide it from me. However, the time we are together is wonderful. Yet, sadness creeps in knowing that when I wake you'll be gone.
Your final words before I wake haunt me all day long.
"Find me."
It's only a whisper but so powerful. Everyone I come into contact with I wonder, "Are you her? Have I found you?"
The girl at the front desk? The cashier when I buy my morning coffee? The girl who cuts my hair or cashes my checks? Someone I pass by on the street?
I don't know where you are. Day after day I look where ever I go. But I know tonight you will be mine again. As I close my eyes and drift away to sleep I see you off in the distance.
Within seconds you are in my arms. I hold you tight and feel happy again. All my problems disappear. I tell you my thoughts. Whatever may be on my mind. My plans for the future. Our future.
Times flies and before I know it you flee out of my arms. I reach for you but you're too far gone. "Find me," is all I hear before I wake once more.
Another wonderful night ends and my day must begin. Again as I go through my day I look. I look for you my love. Don't worry for soon we will be together. Not only in my dreams but in life.
Your words echo in my mind. They keep me motivated. They keep me going. My journey, my mission:
I gotta find you.

Fact

I miss you
I truly do.
When do I get to hear your sweet voice again?
I have no idea how you've been.

No word I hear,
My heart begins to fill with doubt and fear.
In my dreams I can see your face
Then you vanish into thin air without a trace.

I lay awake at night
Wondering if you are safe and alright.
Where have you gone and will you be back?
I miss you so much and that is a fact.

I Want To Kiss Your Lips

I want to kiss your lips
Pink and soft to the touch.
I hold you in my arms
And know I love you so much.

I want to kiss your lips
And feel your tongue play with mine.
Our noses lightly touch
A kiss so gentle, beautiful, and kind.

I want to kiss your lips
And hold you in my arms so tight.
I want to kiss your lips
And make sweet passionate love all night.

I want to kiss your lips
And look deep into your eyes.
You are my lover and my friend
I know you will never say good-bye.

I Want To Love You

I want to love you
But there are things keeping us apart.
I want to hold you in my arms,
And share with you my heart.

Your body belongs to another
But your heart belongs to me.
We talk in secret,
About a love that may never be.

Fear consumes you,
It continues to hold you back.
You're afraid I will hurt you,
Once we're in the sack.

You want to love me too
But in the end I will lose.
You can not leave him,
So settle you will chose.

So I will watch you from afar,
And endure this great pain.
I want to love you,
And that will drive me insane.

If Only For A Day

When I met you I almost passed you by
But something stopped me and told me to try
So I asked you out
You said yes, though you had your doubts.

We left together and had some fun
We stayed up to watch the rising sun.
You said this could not last past tomorrow
My heart began to fill with sorrow.

I don't know what to say
But I'll take what I can get, if only for a day.
For you have opened my soul to something new,
Something wild and free, something pure and true.

Tonight I will hold you close to me
For who knows what the future may be
But as long as I get to love you in my own way
I'm the luckiest man on earth, even if only for a day.

Jitters

I love you so much,
It scares me to the core.
I know
I have never felt THIS before.

I'm so afraid
What more can I really say.
You bring me a joy
One that I never want to go away.

You are so perfect
Okay you have a few flaws,
But I love you no matter what they are,
Hell, look at me, fat as Santa Clause.

Now I'm babbling
Going crazy in my mind.
I'm just amazed
That me you tried to find.

I am nothing special
But you make me feel that way just the same.
You tell me you love me
No matter what the name.

I can't stop shaking
My nerves are shot.
Be careful if you kiss me

Once you start I will never stop.

Meant To Be

Your love is strong, gentle, and kind
And I always find
Myself longing for more
Because I've never felt like this before.

I see love in your eyes,
To me it's a big surprise,
Because I've never known love so true,
The love between me and you.

Nothing can tear us apart
Because I know deep down in my heart
That Fate and Destiny brought you to me
Knowing we are meant to be.

My Plea to You

Every time I think of you
A smile spreads across my face.
I'm filled with happiness
I'm wrapped up in love's warm embrace.

When I touch your skin
A chill runs down my spine.
I smile once more
Knowing that you are mine.

As I kiss your soft lips
I never want to let you go.
You consume me
Consume my heart and soul.

I have but one lot in life
To love you with all that I am.
To make you feel wanted and sexy
To appreciate you any way I can.

I'm falling in love with you
I want to hold you in my arms so tight
Never to give you up
And love you throughout the night.

Obsession or Love

You're always on my mind
Haunting me day and night.
I wonder if this is love
Trying to come to light.

Not a moment goes by
Where I don't wonder about you.
What are you doing today?
Are you thinking of me too?

Everywhere I go
I can see your face.
I long to kiss your lips
And wrap myself in your warm embrace.

I hear your voice
Whispering in my ear.
"I love you
And always want you near."

Is this an obsession
Or love coming to light?
Who cares
As long as I can hold you every day and night.

Off of My Mind

I try to work
But I'm in a bind.
I just can't get you
Off of my mind.

Everywhere I go I see you,
It must be a sign
Cause I just can't get you
Off of my mind.

I see your face
So soft, so sweet, so kind.
Baby I just can't get you
Off of my mind.

The world moves on
But I'm always left behind.
It's all because
I can't get you off of my mind.

Happiness with you
I know I will find.
I already can't get you

Off of my mind.

Power of a Kiss

The power of a kiss
Is such sweet, sweet bliss.
Soft and gentle, filled with passion from the heart.
Lips lightly touching right from the start.

Each touch, longer than the last,
More beautiful than anything from your past.
With eyes closed and hearts opened, electricity fills the air.
So smooth and tender nothing can compare.

You tingle all over as you surrender,
Our bodies intertwine, our love you remember.
Your feet leave the earth as you drift heaven bound,
It feels so good, paradise you have found.

Slowly our hearts beat in tune.
Pure sensational pleasure is in bloom.
As we embrace so nothing we miss,
We can feel the power of this pure simple kiss.

Questions

Is this true love or is it lust?
Are you someone I can truly trust?
Is this for real or am I being played?
Will this last or will it fade?
Are you going to hurt me again and again?
Will you run me around making my head spin?
Is love with me on your mind?
Or will you keep me till someone better you find?
Can we be together, living so far apart?
Am I wasting my time by giving you my heart?
Will you swear to be true?
Or will you cheat, leaving me blue?

Call me crazy, call me dumb
But I have a lot of fear to overcome.
These are the questions that plague me to the core
I've been hurt, burned many times, and I wish for no more.
I feel myself falling and falling hard
My heart I HAVE to guard.
So I ask these questions and hope
That I'm not looking like a fool or a dope.
I pray I have not bitten off more than I can chew
Because maybe someday I can share my life with you.

The Search

Another life,
Another time.
We might have been together
I was yours and you were mine.

I am drawn to you,
A strong pull.
Is this a different kind of love,
Or am I being a fool.

I know you,
Better than anyone in your life.
In the past,
Could you have been my wife?

I have been searching for you,
You have been searching for me.
In this life or the next
I know we are meant to be.

Searching

What are you looking for?
Is it love that you seek?
Are you hoping
To be swept off your feet?

Are you looking
For someone right now?
Or do you want
Someone to give you wedding vows?

Do you want to spend your life
With someone who will love you?
Someone who will cherish
Everything you say or do?

Who are you looking for?
Who do you want him to be?
Hopefully you can love
A simple man like me.

Through My Eyes

Your beauty knows no bounds,

For it is in my eyes where sights and sounds,
Matter
And where my heart may truly shatter.

For your beauty is beyond moral men
It consumes others to commit great sin
Where you see a simple thing
I see true beauty within.

About yourself you have great doubt
Yet, I know without you I can not live without
For I am the luckiest man on Earth
You chose to be with me, you are all that it is worth.

Touched

You're a sweet and wonderful person
Who has touched my heart.
It's amazing too
Because we're so far apart.

The distance between us
May be huge
But your love
Is something I don't want to lose.

It's amazing how good
You make me feel.
When you say you love me
I know it's real.

I can see the love in your eyes
That comes from inside of you.
It makes me know
That I love you too!

While You're Gone

My arms are empty
And they long for you.
They feel so cold,
They feel so blue.

You're running through my mind
Every moment of the day.
You're in my dreams,
I wish you were here to stay.

While you're gone

The very thought of you consumes me.
I wish you were in my arms,
To take away this misery.

Words Aren't Enough

I have a conflict inside,
Words and my feelings collide
Because I can't find anything to say
That expresses my feelings the right way.
I wish I could tell you how I feel
But the words are not yet invented to tell how I feel.
I can't show you all my love
Because no action is ever enough.
I wish I knew what to say or do
That can truly tell how much I love you.

Wow

You are so beautiful
Inside and out.
I love you so much
I want to scream it and shout.

My sweet angel
You are in love with me
In your warm embrace
Is where I long to be.

You believe in me
In ways I never felt before.
You think I deserve the world
You are always asking me for more.

You are too good to me
You make my world go round.
You make my happier
Than any clown.

I love you
With all my heart, body, and soul.
I pray to God daily
He never lets you go.

Your Eyes

They say the eyes
Are gateways to the soul.

They can show a heart of gold
Or a heart black as coal.

But when I look into your eyes
I can see something pure.
You are a beautiful person
With a passionate fire that will endure.

Your eyes are so beautiful
I could stare into them for hours.
So deep, so sweet
So soft and yet full of power.

I am yours forever
You have me mesmerized.
I can see and feel your love
When I look into your eyes.

God Bless America

God Bless America
As I fly high over her tonight.
She is the reason I give my life
And for her freedom I fight.

God Bless America
The land we hold dear.
Because of her we have our freedom
And never live in fear.

God Bless America
Keep her children safe
Cause they are what I'm fighting for
And to make our home a better place.

Dreams Gone

What has my life become?
Where did all my dreams go?
This is not what I expected,
Life has said no.

I had plans for my future.
Where did it all go wrong?
I had passion for my dreams,
My feelings were very strong.

I knew what I wanted to be,
And that my chances were slim.

But I fought on
Even when my world looked pretty grim.

Now my dreams are dead
Before they ever lived.
I go through the motions of life
Without a care in the world to give.

A Lost Love

I can't eat
I can't sleep.
I just go through the motions of life
As I weep.

She doesn't love me
She doesn't care.
FATE is out to get me
All I know is, it's not fair.

I gave and I gave
And asked for one thing in return.
To love ONLY me
But instead I got burned.

You ask what's wrong
Why I've fallen from grace?
It's because I was in love
And love spat in my face.

Courage Under Fire

Pregnant and all alone
But you plan to see it through.
Afraid no one will help in any way,
You continue on, knowing this baby will need you.
THAT is Courage Under Fire.

Getting up each morning,
Dreading to face the new day.
There is a bully who makes your life hell
But you face him, never knowing what you are going to say.
THAT is Courage Under Fire.

You kept a secret,
One that will tear your family apart.
Now you've decided to come out of the closet
And be true to your heart.
THAT is Courage Under Fire.

You see things daily,
Things no person should see.
You bury the images deep inside
As a dying man cries, "Nurse, Don't leave me!"
THAT is Courage Under Fire.

You loved your job,
When you first became a cop.
Now you do it cause others need you
Knowing and dreading that someday a bullet in your head may pop.
THAT is Courage Under Fire.

There are things in life
That scares you to the core.
Then you look deep down inside yourself
Finding strength to carry on and live life just a little more.
THAT is Courage Under Fire.

Used

Used and abused
Beaten and bruised.
Yelled at, scream at
Being called ugly, good for nothing, and fat.
Stepped on, picked on
Wishing I was dead and gone.
I've been hurt badly and I feel so ashamed.
I've known nothing but heartache and pain.
All the time I'm being lied to
But still I trust you.
This is my life as you can plainly see
Dear Lord please send someone to help me.

Helpful Words

The pressure may be high and the moral low,
But before your top you blow
Remember these words I say
Each and every day:
Smile like there's no tomorrow
And away goes your sorrow.
Be gentle and kind
And you'll receive peace of mind.
Look at everyday a new
With a positive attitude and you won't be blue.
Don't always walk around
Wearing a frown
But try to look happy

Because then happy you will be.
So when work has you down and out
Don't have any doubt
That your troubles will go away
Because they will when you follow these words every day.

Faith

You walk around with a heavy heart
You have a lot on your mind.
But this burden you don't have to bear alone
A friend in me you will find.

Faith, Hope, and Love
The LORD has given to us.
If you look deep inside you will see
You have friends you can trust.

Let me help you
Carry this HEAVY cross.
Jesus has sent me to you
In this time of your loss.

Trust in the LORD
Strength and faith you will find a new.
Day by day
You are with friends that love you.

My Rock

You are the rock I lean on,
You provide me strength when mine is gone.
You're always there when I need you
And you're willing to help when I ask you to.
You're there like a true friend should
So I thank you for doing all that you could.
It's really no wonder why to you I flock
Because you are always there for me, you are my rock.

First Day of School

You were so excited
You couldn't sleep at all
Because today is your first day of school.

I got you dressed
Breakfast you hurried up and ate
Because today is your first day of school.

You sat on the couch and waited
So excited you're going to burst
Because today is your first day of school.

It's time to go
You run out the door
Because today is your first day of school.

You look out the window
Not a care in the world
Because today is your first day of school.

You kick your little feet
"Are we there yet daddy?"
Because today is your first day of school.

You almost tear my arm off
As you pull me to the front door
Because today is your first day of school.

You say hello to your new teacher
As you bounce up and down for joy
Because today is your first day of school.

I tell you I love you and to be good
You're not even listening to me
Because today is your first day of school.

I kiss you goodbye
And you run off to play with the other kids
Because today is your first day of school.

Tears fill up my eyes
My baby is a baby no more
Because today is your first day of school.

You're growing up to fast
Yesterday you were just born
And now today is your first day of school.

My Little Girl

I'm not sure what this is
I just know I don't want it to stop.
I would give you the world
Or let you play "Hop on Pop."

You are my baby
You are a mini me.

I want the best for you
I want your life to be happy.

No matter how old you get
You will always be daddy's little girl.
My little energetic dancer
My princess in curls.

I started worrying about you
Since before you were born.
You make me laugh
When you try on clothes you've out worn.

I'll try to give you protection
In everything you do.
I want you to never doubt
That I LOVE YOU!

So...

So soft and sweet.
So innocent and pure.
You always make me smile.

So helpless and independent.
So stubborn and strong.
You always make me laugh.

So tough and tender.
So prissy and demanding.
You steal my heart away.

So much love and anger.
So much passion and emotion.
You always make me cry.

So BIG yet so small.
So you decided to leave me.
You will always be Daddy's little girl.

Little Adult

When you're sad
There's someone who makes you happy.
Another boy
And it hurts that it is not me.

You say he's wonderful
He's your best friend

Your face lights up
When you say his name again and again.

I wonder off
To be myself.
I'm so scared
I'm not ready to share you with anyone else.

I hoped I could wait
Until you were at least sixteen
This came ten years too soon
There goes my ulcer, my heart, my spleen.

Mustang Hussy

Old or new
Red or blue
I AM a Mustang Hussy.

I love the style, I love the speed
To open her up, that's what she needs
I AM a Mustang Hussy.

The horses galloping at full steam
The top is down, wind in my face, this is no dream
I AM a Mustang Hussy.

Front to back and all around
She is my baby, happiness I've found
I AM a Mustang Hussy.

The roar of the engine, the smell of the gas
Begging, long to be driven very fast
I AM a Mustang Hussy.

Give me a ride in one and I might put out
As you can see without a doubt
I AM a Mustang Hussy.

One Night Stand

We're both scanning the room
Our eyes meet.
Smiles are sent
The music moves our feet.

A few drinks are bought
Conversation is small.
Heat fills the air

Tonight clothes are going to fall.

We go back to your place
Kissing each other the whole way.
Hormones are raging
Our bodies know what to say.

It's been so long
I'm tired of being alone.
I can tell you feel the same
As you knock over the phone.

The sex was great
There were many explosions and booms.
Now that it's over
Silence fills the room.

As I leave without a word
I wonder who used who.
I never even got your name
My happy feeling turns blue.

Alone again is not what I wanted
Yet here I am.
I'm really getting tired
Of these one night stands.

Fleeing Love

I want to scream and shout
My heart is in much pain.
I feel dead and cold
Blood no longer runs through my veins.

I've become a zombie
Not wanting to go out.
Pain, Anger, and Loneliness
Refuse to leave without Doubt.

Doubt fills my heart
It consumes my very soul.
I tried to love
And now it's time to pay the toll.

I've become an empty shell
A hollow replica of a man.
Love will always leave me,
Leaving me dead where I stand.

Remember

Taking a stroll down memory lane,
Seeing things I never thought would drive me insane.
Happy memories and sad ones too,
Mostly memories of me and you.

These memories make me laugh and they make me cry
Yea, I remember that, "I believe I can fly."
You were always silly and goofing around
You had me acting like a clown.

I forgot what we had
Now that I think about it, it's kind of sad.
I miss you my friend
As your song says, "When will I see you again?"

Closing Distance

I look up into the starry sky
It's with a heavy heart that I sigh.
I would rather spend this night with you
In each other's arms, making something new.

So far away, longing to be close,
It is you I want the most.
Longing for you to be near,
No longer living our lives in fear.

I will not hurt you or cause you pain.
In love I will drive you insane.
As I close my eyes you're here with me,
This is the place I was born to be.

Stress

I'm stressing over something
I'm just not sure over what.
It's kicking my ass,
It's got me stuck in a rut.

Bills are piling up
There seems to be no end in sight.
I work long and hard
Yet money is so very tight.

The kids are screaming
The little devils are getting into trouble.
This is nothing new

Just another stone thrown in the rubble.

My slumber is getting less,
All night I toss and turn.
The stress is getting to me
My soul it's going to burn.

I'm stressing over something
I got a lot going on.
I now know on the chess board of life
I am just a pawn.

I don't want to go crazy
Or become a zombie like the rest.
God I wish I could
Just get rid of this stress.

Zero to Hero

You never see me
Yet I'm everywhere you look,
I'm surrounded by people
Unnoticeable as a crook.

You walk on by
Never looking at my face.
You go about your life
Not caring about my pace.

You want me there
To keep you safe
Knowing I will do my job
Without hesitation, without haste.

You never see me
Until something goes wrong.
That's when I become your hero
No longer invisible, just very very strong.

Love Trouble

Why do you tease me,
And lead me on,
When you know
That soon you will be gone?

Why do you tease me,
And play with my mind,
Knowing your leaving

Is only a matter of time?

Do you find it funny,
Do you get some great joy?
Do you not know
That I am not a toy?

Why do you do this,
Play with my heart?
Why have you gone
And ripped it apart?

Why do you treat me
So mean and cruel?
What have I ever
Done to you?

Why do you tease me
When you know I can feel?
Why do you pretend
When you know this is not real?

Why Can't I

There's so much drama around me
It gives me a headache, it drives me crazy.
My life seems so full of pain
I SWEAR TO GOD I'M GOING INSANE!

Why can't I stay home with you?
Why can't I take away your blues?
Why can't I hold you in my arms?
Why can't I protect you from harm?

Why can't I kiss your lips?
Why can't I hold your hips?
Why can't I nibble your ears?
Why can't I drive away your fears?

Why can't I make love to you all day?
Why can't I chase you around the bed in play?
Why can't I make you laugh without a care?
Why can't I show you a life that's fair?

There's so much drama around us
Everyone wanting to fight and fuss
Our life seems so full of pain
I SWEAR TO GOD WE'RE GOING INSANE!

Wish You Were Here

The thoughts that run through my head
When you're not around
It's an emotional rollercoaster
Having its ups and downs.

Happiness and joy, warmth and comfort,
Then emptiness sets in.
Sadness and cold begin to take over
Then depression, my long lost friend.

Then I get a message from you,
Just in the nick of time.
I pull up out of my spiral
Happiness again I find.

I glance over at your picture
A smile spreads across my face.
Longing to hold you in my arms
Thinking of how you will taste.

I don't know
If you feel the same way.
But when we're apart
I think of you at least 50 times a day.

I look at your picture
Sitting on my desk.
I'm a lucky man,
You picked me above the rest.

Your

Your long dark hair,
Your smooth red lips,
Your sweet perfume,
Your lovely fingertips.

Your cute little laugh,
Your beautiful face,
Your soothing charm,
Your warm embrace.

Your deep eyes,
Your dark torturous soul,
Your soft skin,
Your luscious curves and rolls.

Your loving heart,

Your nerdy brain,
You're too perfect for me,
You're driving me insane.

A Fairy Tale Awaits

Where is my princess?
My damsel in distress?
Where is the love of my life?
To find her I am hard press.

Where is my prince?
Someone for me to hold?
Where is my white knight?
He is going to find me, so I am told.

I'm on a quest,
Hoping someday I will find you.
I want to make you my queen,
To bring pleasure to all that you do.

I am waiting,
My dear Prince.
Will you be my king?
We shall share a love with no fence.

Alone

As I sit here alone in my room,
I wonder about life.
I ask if I'm doomed
To always live with hurt and strife.

I lie still in bed
And stare up at the wall.
As thoughts run through my head
I wish I had an answer to it all.

I've had my share of love
And I've had my share of pain.
I'm thankful to God above
That I haven't gone insane.

So, as I sit here alone
And stare into the dark.
I pray I don't spend my life alone
And light love's fire with my spark.

Are You?

Are you an obsession?
Are you here to haunt my mind?
Are you always so sweet?
Are you such a good find?

Are you ready to love again?
Are you going to run?
Are you going to let me love you?
Are we going to have some fun?

Are you going to surrender?
Are you going to give your heart to me?
Are you going to blush?
Are you going to let our love be?

Are you going to answer these questions?
Are you going to keep me in suspense?
Are you going to let me love you?
Are you going to stay on the fence?

Be My Love

Be my love
And I'll always be true.
Be my love
So I can love no one but you.

Be my love
And make me happy.
Be my love
And share your life with me.

Be my love
So we can be together.
Be my love
Now, and forever.

Be my love
And have peace of mind.
Be my love
And I'll love you for all time.

The Almighty Boobie

The almighty boobie
Ruler of the world.
Beloved by all

Wanted by both boy and girl.

Sweet nectar of life
How I cherish thee.
Every curve, every bump
I'm grateful to every one that I see.

They are a precious gift
One that I am blessed to touch.
Swirling my tongue over them
I love them so much.

Nibbling and suckling for hours
Of them I never tire.
They hold my attention
Having them in my mouth is my desire.

The very thought of them
Does something special to me.
Heavenly bliss I want to give
Holding them, the only place I want to be.

They come in all shapes and sizes,
Big and small.
To me it doesn't matter
I'm lucky to be able to have them at all.

Sweet and juicy
So soft, so tender, so pure.
The nub that is the nipple
Taste the best for sure.

Many men have succumbed
To the power of the breast.
I myself am entranced
Just like all the rest.

I will cherish what is given
Savor it to the core.
Let me be happy in your arms,
I can not ask for more.

Destiny

Do you know who you are?
Who you are meant to be?
Do you know where you're going?
What you want to see?

Are you just here?

Or do you have a plan?
Will you go it alone?
Will you hold someone's hand?

Will you rock it out loud?
Will you read about it on a Dell?
Will you be at peace in heaven?
Will you kick it hard in hell?

Nature has a plan,
Soak up the sun.
Will you burn out with the masses?
Or will you stand up and be the ONE!

Do Not Love Me

Do not love me
I am not worth the hurt.
Yes I can be charming
But I am really worst than dirt.

I may seem like someone you can love
But deep down I'm doomed to my fate.
Darkness surrounds me
Myself I hate.

My soul is tortured
With every breath I take.
I hide it well
Careful with each move I make.

I don't want to hurt you
More than I already have
I know if you stay
I'm only gonna make you sad.

I am no good
Open your eyes and you will see.
I can not be saved
Do not love me.

Don't Leave Me

Please don't take your love from me
For I love you so much I would swim the Red Sea,
Walk around the entire earth,
And for what it's worth
I would take care of you
Cause wherever you'll be, I'll be there too.

I have my pride
But if you leave me I'll be by your side
Begging you please
Not to leave me on my knees
For I can't live without your love
Cause you're the only one I've been dreaming of.

Ever

Ever feel lonely?
Ever feel blue?
Ever feel used?
Ever feel like someone is messing with you?

Ever feel hurt?
Ever feel mad?
Ever feel like shit?
Ever feel just too sad?

Ever want to scream?
Ever want to go crazy?
Ever feel so angry?
Ever feel lazy?

Ever wonder what life holds?
Ever wonder what to say?
Ever wonder why I feel for you?
Ever wonder why I feel this way?

Facing Death

It's dark in here
And cold all around.
There's a giant hole
Waiting for me in the ground.

I'm facing DEATH
And he doesn't like to wait.
He says he has a job to do
And refuses to be late.

But I'm not ready to go,
I have to fight.
I can cheat him this once,
I know I can, I know I'm right.

He asks me
Why I want to stay,

“I have a family to love
Day after day.”

Love gives me the strength
It is my light,
In this dark cold place
Where DEATH I must fight.

Falling In Love

Do you think we're falling in love?
I sure do!
I think you're sent from heaven above
Cause you take away my blues.

Do you think we're falling in love?
What do you have to say?
You're the one I've been dreaming of
So I'm here to stay.

Do you think we're falling in love?
Cause I'm always around you.
Do you think we're falling in love?
Well, I sure do!

For You My Love

What do you want from me?
Who do you want me to be?
Am I suppose to fulfill your every need?
I know your soul I'm to feed.

I know I am suppose to do things for you,
Like make your dreams come true.
Your fantasies I am to fulfill
And you can bet I always will.

I will be here
For you, whenever you need me near.
You can feel my love in the air
Because for you I will always care.

So tell me what you want from me,
And who you want me to be?
I'll try to be the guy you're dreaming of
And I do it all for you, my love.

Going Away

Going away is so very hard to do
Because I don't want to lose you.
You say we're better off friends,
God I wish this pain would end.

Going away is an action I hate most of all
And it feels like I rammed into a brick wall.
The pain is large and not easy to cure
But it's another trial I just have to endure.

Going away is the hardest thing I'll ever have to do
Even though my feelings are still true.
I have to go through this hell everyday
Because against my will I am forced to go away.

Happy Veteran's Day

GOD BLESS AMERICA
The land where I live
And honor the lives
That my fore fathers did give.
So that I may
Live happy and FREE
To worship as I please
To be all that I can be.
That sacrifice
Will not be in vain,
I have pleasures
Cause they had pain.
I am grateful
To be in this place.
To stand tall and proud
And thank a Veteran to his face.

Have You Ever

Have you ever been in love?
Giving away your heart, body, and soul?
Longing for a touch,
Only they can make you whole?

Have you ever been in love?
Your thoughts no longer your own?
Nothing else matters,
Until you talk in person or on the phone?

Have you ever been in love?
You can't breathe?

Everything you do
Is for them to receive?

Have you ever been in love?
Have you ever babbled on and on?
Have you ever been in love?
Have you ever felt this strong?

Here To Stay

You're more than just a friend
Because you do a lot for me.
You truly do care
About what I want to be.

You say you love me
And I know it's true
Because you constantly prove your love
By the things you do.

You're always there
When I need you the most.
Not once did you disappear
Or pretend to be a ghost.

I love you and you love me,
There's nothing more to say,
Except that, I know
Our love is here to stay.

How Do I Know I Love You

How do I know I love you?
Well, I listen to my heart.
It's been giving me signs
Right from the start.

I know how I feel,
I know my feelings are true.
I really can't explain
How much I love you.

Words are no good
They just get in the way.
There really are no words
To describe what I want to say.

You light up my life
And my world turns because of you.

So is it any wonder
That I know I love you.

How Much Do I Love You

How much do I love you?
I really don't know
Because the things I do
Help my love for you grow.

I think about you day and night,
And I see you all the time.
I know I love you with all my might,
Heart, soul, and mind.

Every day I see you
A stronger love grows.
So how much do I love you,
Is a question I may never know.

How Much You Mean To Me

I like everything about you,
The way you make me happy whenever I feel blue.
The way you drive me crazy when you comb your hair
To one side of your face to wear.

When you look at me and turn your head to one side,
It sends shivers up and down my spine.
You look so darn cute
You make my lips want to toot.

I like the way your spirit by far
Soars higher than any star.
Oh, how I wish you could see
How much you mean to me.

Break Up

“I hate to see you like this,
Once you were so full of bliss.
Now you've let yourself go
Spiraling out of control.”

“I was happy, that is true,
But my happiness revolved around you.
Without you I am nothing,
My life doesn't mean a thing.”

“That’s not true,
If you think that, you are a fool.”
Cupping his face in her hands
She kisses his lips as soft as she can.

“I miss your touch,” he cries
As he holds her hands to him and sighs.
“I can not live
I have no more left to give.”

“You can not talk this way
I beg you, you must stay.
Where I am you can not follow
And I’m sorry it fills you with sorrow.”

“This pain knows no bounds, you don’t understand.
It consumes me, I am but a shell of a man.
My heart, my body, my soul, all belong to you.”
He cries then whispers, “I know not what to do.”

She looks down at him and stares.
She knows that it is unfair.
Her emotions are cold.
She no longer feels anything that is bold.

“Let me be, my love, let me be.
Can’t you see,
What you’re doing to me?
Please I beg you, let me be.”

“I’m sorry seeing me brings you pain
But coming here brings me no gain.
You bring me here every night,
Yet you won’t allow me to leave your sight.”

“You come here on your own,
Then you leave me alone in this home.
I do not call you here,
Cause losing you again is what I fear.”

“You can not lose me,
Why can’t you see,
I am no longer yours to lose,
Not letting me go is something you choose.”

“Leave then, just go.
I promise I will love you no more.
I am free to do what I want,
Me you can no longer haunt.”

“I wish I could take away your pain,
I can see my death drives you insane.
I will visit your dreams no more.”
She kisses his lips as she floats out the door.

I Always See You

I always see you
And a smile spreads across my face.
I always see you
And know I'm falling in love without any haste.

I always see you,
Your beauty so sweet.
I always see you,
With a personality that can't be beat.

I always see you
With your long beautiful hair.
I always see you
But you never know I'm there.

I always see you
Talking to other guys.
I always see you
Falling for their lies.

I always see you,
And to you I want to get close.
I always see you,
Because I love you the most.

I Am Death

I am Death.
Your life is mine tonight.
I take it without remorse,
When I have you in my sight.

There is no turning back
When I get the call.
Your time has come
And now you must fall.

You can't see me,
You don't even know I'm near.
Then you feel the cold,
Darkness fills you with fear.

In a split second,
As you take your last breath
You know your life belongs to me
For I AM DEATH!

I Know

I know I can trust you
Because you're so sincere.
If it comes from you
I can believe everything I hear.

I know in my heart
You will never do me wrong.
I know in my heart,
Because our love is so strong.

I know you're always true
To the things you say,
No matter what you do
Each and every day.

I know what love is
I know how it feels.
I know what love is
Because ours is so real.

I know the happiness I feel inside
Comes from you,
And I can't hide
How much I love you.

I Love You Too

You love me for who I am
And not who you want me to be.
That can only mean
You love me for me.

I think that's sweet
And shows your love.
A love I know
I could never get enough of.

I like being with you
There's nothing I'd rather do,
Because you truly love me
And I love you too.

I Wonder

I wonder do you love me?
I wonder what have I done?
I'm not a party guy.
I'm kind of a square, not very fun.

I wonder what is it you see?
I wonder have I put you under a spell?
I don't have much money
And I really can't cook that well.

I wonder if you see the man that I am?
I wonder if you see the man you want me to be?
I have a complex mind
You get a lot when you get me.

I wonder if you're sure you want me?
I wonder if you're sure you're in love?
I know one thing
You're my ANGEL sent from heaven above.

I Would Like to Fly

I would like to fly
Way up high in the sky
In a single or twin engine jet
And you can bet
That I'll push that plane to its limits
Flying faster and faster in it.
I'll do rolls and dives, turns and burns
And even maneuvers I have yet to learn.
Flying at Mach 1, 2, even 3, and 4
I'll be happier than I've ever been before
Because flying and turning at such high speeds
Is a wonderful thrill indeed,
That I would jump at the chance in a heart beat
To fly to new heights and feats.

If You Were Mine

If you were mine what would I do?
How would I prove my love for you?
I would promise to be near
So all your problems I could hear.
I will work hard for you
So you can have all you want to.
I may not bring you roses everyday

But I will show my love in other ways.
I know I will love you for all time
Only if you were mine.

I'm So Happy

I'm so happy
I don't know what to do.
I've never felt this way
And my happiness comes from you.

You make me smile
And brighten my day.
I know I can find comfort
In the wonderful things you say.

I'm so happy
I can't believe it's real.
Someone actually cares
About the way I feel.

There's really nothing I could say
To make you see
Just how happy
You make me.

I'm Sorry

I'm sorry for what I've done
Because I've ruined all your fun.
Obviously I've done something wrong
Because your anger towards me is so strong.
I hate to see you mad,
Upset, or really really sad
So I try to make you happy,
Please, please forgive me.
Again I'm sorry for whatever I do
That makes you sad, angry, or blue.

It's Amazing

It's amazing what you do
When I'm feeling blue
Because with just a touch
You can say so much
And take the hurt away.

It's amazing what you do

Every time I'm with you,
The stars shine bright,
Everything feels so right
And I know I love you every day.

It's amazing what you do
When I'm feeling blue,
You're all I could ever be
Because you see things in me
That I never knew was there.

It's amazing what you do
Every time I'm with you.
Nothing can cause me pain
As long as you're on my brain
Because about me I know you care.

Left Behind

So many questions,
So much sorrow.
I'm truly sorry,
I won't see you after tomorrow.

I took my own life.
Why is what you want to know.
I could no longer
Take the torture on my soul.

I was in so much pain,
Hiding it was hard.
My heart was shattered,
Myself I could no longer guard.

No one understood
These demons I've been fighting.
I was alone in this world,
Death became so inviting.

I know you love me,
But you really don't know what I felt.
The constant struggle,
The tears without a belt.

You will be better off
Without me.
I know it sounds bad
But I promise you will see.

If you really love me

You will be glad.
My pain is over
No more sorrow, no more being sad.

Please do not cry for me,
Just because I am deceased.
I love you all
Signed, Finally At Peace.

Loving You

Tell me what's on your mind
When I promise you forever?
Is it a long time
That you see us together?

I know times are tough
But our love will never fade,
Cause no matter how rough
I'll always keep the promises I made.

I love you because you're so sincere
And you're always true to your heart.
I know I will always want you near
Because I love you with all my heart.

Man of Steel

The Man of Steel
So honorable, so strong.
Has one true weakness,
Longing to be in your arms.
You are my greatest strength
When you are by my side.
I feel invincible
I feel full of pride.
No one can take away
What you mean to me.
No amount of Kryptonite
Can stop my love, for you see,
You are my Supergirl
My rock and my soul.
Without you I am nothing,
YOU make me whole.
I may be like Superman
Tough, but I know what is real.
I want to be your hero,
I want to be your Man of Steel.

My Angel

You are my Angel
Sent from heaven above.
Full of wonder and grace,
So full of love.

Your beauty is radiant.
When you smile you glow.
I want to wrap my arms around you
And never let you go.

You make me feel
Things I thought were long gone.
Love, a sense of being,
I feel like I finally belong.

Thank you my Angel
For all you made me see.
I am no longer a loser
You truly have saved me.

My Feelings

I know I'm not suppose
To give you my heart
But I can't stand
The thought of us being apart.

I'll do all that I can
To make your dreams come true.
No matter what happens
I'll always stand by you.

You don't have to worry
About me going away
Because my love for you grows stronger
Each and every day.

I promise to be here
And provide for your every need.
Only because
My soul you feed.

It's Been A Lonely Day

It's been lonely day
I have nothing good to say

I know you are not near
But how I long for you to be here.

The day drags on
And the night becomes long
Without being able to talk to you,
Cause everywhere I look I see those eyes of blue.

You haunt my dreams and posses my soul
Without you I am not whole.
I can hear your sweet voice calling my name
And knowing you love me, all the same.

While I have to work
In the back of my mind you lurk.
But soon I know I will have my way
I just have to get through this lonely day.

Insane

Love is dumb, love is blind
Love truly never was mine.
I search and I search for someone new
A wondrous person I found in you.

I was happy, always with a smile
At least, for a little while.
You didn't mean to but it hurt just the same
Now my heart bleeds when I hear your name.

Everywhere I go I see that face
A beautiful Angel in a state of Grace
What made me think, I was ever enough
It's never more than friendship, it's never love.

Another "Let's be friends," is thrown out
And excess after excess so myself I would not doubt.
I'm a big boy, I can take the pain
You're just another lost love driving me insane.

My Find

I see you from afar
You vanish as I draw near.
I know, yet I wonder who you are,
When again you reappear.

I long to be with you
And wrap myself in your loving embrace.

But there is nothing I can do,
When away from me you hide your face.

You come to me in my dreams,
And possess my thoughts day and night.
No matter how far off you may seem,
I will come for you with all my might.

You're out there somewhere,
And one day you will be mine.
For now I will look with care,
Cause the girl of my dreams will be an awesome find.

My First Ride

My First ride,
Colors of pink, white, and blue.
Very tricky,
Me riding you.

Fear consumes me
As I wobble from side to side.
"Peddle or you'll fall"
This fear I can not hide.

Foot over foot
Faster I go.
"I'm doing it! I'm doing it!"
Fast not slow.

I did it!
I went on my own.
I rode my bike by myself,
Now can we please go home.

NAVY PILOT'S PRAYER

AS I WALK TO MY PLANE
TO ONCE MORE TAKE TO THE SKIES
I ASK, "GOD BE WITH ME"
AS I HAVE FEAR IN MY EYES.

I WALK AROUND MY CRAFT
CHECKING EVERYTHING IN SIGHT
I TELL MYSELF
I WILL DO GOOD ON THIS FLIGHT.

AS I CLIMB UP INTO MY COCKPIT
AND STRAP MYSELF IN,

I TAKE A DEEP BREATH,
'LORD, HERE WE GO AGAIN.'

I FIRE UP MY ENGINES
AND THIS BIRD SPRINGS TO LIFE
SOON IT WILL TAKE OFF,
CUTTING THROUGH THE AIR LIKE A KNIFE.

THE CANOPY CLOSES
I'M READY TO GO
I CLOSE MY EYES
AND SAY ANOTHER PRAYER REAL SLOW.

"GOD BE WITH ME
YOU ARE MY STRENGTH AND MY MIGHT
I BEG OF YOU
PROTECT ME AGAIN ON THIS FLIGHT."

I LOOK DOWN BELOW
THEN STRAIGHT AHEAD,
WITH AFTERBURNERS ROARING
I'M PULLED DOWN THE DECK ON A SLED.

UP, UP, UP I CLIMB
HIGH UP IN THE SKY SO BLUE
I KNOW NOW EVERYTHING IS FINE
GOD AS MY CO-PILOT IS WHAT MAKES IT TRUE.

No Words

Your long golden hair
Your beautiful eyes.
Your sweet pink lips
Your wonderful smile.
These are just a few
Of the things I admire most.
You haunt my day and night
But you are no ghost.

Your tender heart
Your emotions for me.
Your warm embrace
Your kindness towards all.
These are the things
I long to be near.
To someday hold you
As we take away our fear.

Your soft smooth skin
Your radiant glow.

Your hunger, your passion
Your innocence and more.
There are not enough words
That I could say or do.
Simply know
That I love you.

Not Worth It

There is nothing in this world
Worth losing you.
I love you fully
All the things you say and do.

You are my life,
Without you there is no living.
You are kind, warm,
And oh so forgiving.

I know I am not easy to live with
Of that there is no doubt.
But you help me through all my problem
Even when I scream and shout.

The thought of losing you
Scares me deep down inside
Nothing is worth losing you,
Not even my dumb pride.

Offer

What I have to give,
Sadly is not much.
I have no money,
Sometimes I can barely eat lunch.

I'm not very smart,
This, at least, I know.
Some things have to explained
To me very slow.

I don't have looks,
My trunk has a lot of junk,
My body looks like a balloon,
My face chubby like a chipmunk.

I don't have much to offer,
Only my name.
It may not be much,

But it's mine just the same.

Someday I want to share it
With you and only you.
Make you fall madly in love with me
Never making you sad, angry, or blue.

What I have to give,
Sadly is not much.
I can love you forever,
And give hugs a bunch.

P-51 Mustang

She flies hard through the air
Solid and strong, full of grace.
She will obey her master's command
Making him look like a smooth ace.

Loops and rolls
She will perform with ease.
Those that can not fly her
She will make jealous, she will tease.

Every line, every curve
She's a beautiful sight.
No other aircraft can match
Her in a dogfight.

She is my baby
She takes care of her master.
Together we are
Flying faster and faster.

Revolving Door

Why am I a revolving door?
Treated badly and ignored.
I don't want to be,
But this is how everyone sees me.

Why am I a revolving door?
Kicked hard when I'm down on the floor.
I can be a nerd, dork, and geek,
But somehow you see this as weak.

Why am I a revolving door?
I just want to give you all you want and more.
In and out of my life you go,

Hurting me very very slow.

Why am I a revolving door?
My soul is in pain, sore.
Do you hate me deep down in your core?
Tell me why am I a revolving door?

Screw Life

Screw life,
I'm done with it all.
If DEATH wants me
I'm ready to take the fall.

Joy and pain,
They never balance out.
One always outweighs the other,
It makes me scream and shout!

SCREW LIFE!

It gives me a break,
Lets me feel good for a spell.
Then hits me with a brick wall,
Laughing at me cause I fell.

No more!
I won't let it cause me pain.
I will end it myself,
My mind has already gone insane.

SCREW LIFE!!!

Special Friend

I like talking to you
Because you always have fun things to do
And I like having you around
Cause we pick each other up when we're down.

You like to do fun and crazy things
And I can see you spreading your wings,
Running around, free as can be,
Running around, seeing as much as you can see.

I like you because you're sweet, gentle, and kind
And I hope you never lose that through time.
To me you're a very special friend
So I hope we can be friends until the end.

Strangers

Some people come into our lives,
And we don't know why.
Some make us happy all the time,
While others make us cry.

Some you feel a strong connection
And can not live without.
Still others,
No what you do, you always scream and shout.

Some we know for years,
Some we know for a brief moment.
Both can leave a mark on our souls for years,
Is life trying to give us a hint?

Billions of people in the world,
All passing each other by.
You can add a smile to someone's day,
Just stop and say, "HI!"

Strong Love

I love you, that's no lie
And for your love I would die.
My feelings for you run strong and deep,
I see you everywhere I go, even in my sleep.
I've never ever felt this way
And I wish I knew the words to describe what I want to say
But none do justice, none ring true
Because my love is so strong for you.

Take It Back

Dark and cold am I
My heart has turned black.
I have been wounded deeply
By words that can not be taken back.

The actions you took were just as bad
Or maybe they were worse.
What did I really expect?
I know I am cursed.

You teased and used me
Just to make yourself feel good.

I let it happen
More than I should.

Now my soul is damned
My heart, cold and black.
You wounded me
And can not take it back.

Thank You

I want to thank you
For all the wonderful things you do.
You make me happy all the time
Because things we share, yours and mine.
You truly care about me
And want me to be happy.
You truly make me soar
And I couldn't ask for more
Because I found a love so true,
So for that, I thank you.

The Ocean

The gentle crash of the waves,
The soft sway of the surf.
Looking out over the water,
Onto the soft sand and earth.

The ocean may roar,
But it's a sweet gentle sound.
A calming peace
As the world turns round.

A storm may be brewing
Out deep in the waters of blue
But here and now
Sweet bliss is a new.

It's amazing
The relaxation water can bring.
The surf, the sand, the wind
Mother Nature's song they all sing.

The Strongest Woman I Know

Up at four am,
Newspaper in hand.
She was wide awake,

When I could barely stand.

Breakfast she would make,
It was the most important meal of the day.
After my shower
I would sit and stay.

No words were spoken,
Except, "Eat everything on your plate.
Hurry up
Or you will be late."

Late for the bus
Meant one thing.
I would have to walk
Otherwise there would be a sting.

She was never afraid
To tear up my behind.
Spankings were plentiful
Only question, what kind.

A short little lady
One that knew how to fight.
Rick Flare being her favorite
The Nature Boy was alright.

Hard to imagine
Getting locked into a figure four.
But she did it
Never hesitating to take us to the floor.

Tough but fair,
That's who she is.
Never spoiling us,
Teaching us with a quiz.

In her eyes
Children we were not.
Young adults,
Life lessons she taught.

Nothing came easy,
Everything we had to earn.
Working hard,
Was the first lesson to learn.

Picking fruit, cutting grass,
Chores we had to do.
Making good grades
Was what she expected of you.

You could not whine,
You could not complain.
A slap to the face,
Is all you would gain.

Tending to her garden,
And reading her books.
Two things she loved to do,
Messing with them got you THE LOOK.

The look was cold,
And you knew what was to come.
A shoe, a belt, or a switch,
Is where your whooping came from.

She was not all mean,
There was a soft side.
Rewarding good behavior,
That too was a ride.

Money was never short,
For books you wanted to read.
She was a firm believer,
That your mind you should feed.

I am what I am,
Because of the things I was taught.
My grandma was the strongest woman I know,
Especially when she fought.

This Fear

I'm cold and alone
Without you in my arms.
I'm afraid, shaking
Wondering what I did wrong.

I love you, I love you
I really do.
You are the only person that matters
Life is not worth living, without you.

My heart is shattered
Can't you see,
When I needed you the most,
You save me.

I want to love you
Till the day that I die.

I beg of you,
Please don't make me cry.

Only you
Can wash away these tears.
Only your love
Can protect me from this fear.

To My Daughter

From the moment you were brought into this world
You have been a blessing from above.
You filled my heart with many emotions
Sorrow, worry, joy, but always love.
And no matter how big you get,
You will always be my little girl.
As you grow up
All I can do is offer you the world.
So I pray that I raise you right,
That you turn into the person I know you can be.
May all your hopes and dreams come true,
From your family, your mother, and me.

Trouble Heart

My heart says, "Yes" but my mind says, "No,
This feeling of love can not grow."
But grow it does, large and grand
Every time I reach out for your hand.
I know its love I feel in my heart,
I knew it was love right from the start.
We may have some problems, troubles may arise
But we can work them out, you and I.
I know you may have some doubts but you love me too
And for that I will always love you.

What You Are

You're so sweet and kind
With your young logical mind.

You're funny and smart
Because you have a good heart.

You care how others feel,
I know because I see your feelings are real.

You always offer a friendly ear

With your motives so sincere

You are a lot of things too numerous to say
But I still love and care for you every day.

Why Do I Love You

Why do I love you?
Well to name a few:
I love you because of your smile,
I see it every little while.
I love you because of you're kind,
And you have a gentleness that will out last time.
I love you because of how you make me feel,
I know your feelings are real.
I love you for the sweet person you are
And you shine brighter than any star.
The main reason, thou, why I love you
Is because I know you love me too.

Why Do You Do This?

Why do you want to have a little fling
When you wear a ring
On your hand
Or does that band
Not mean anything to you,
Does it not mean what it use to?

Why do you want someone else,
Do you just care about yourself?
I have feelings too,
Strong feelings for you
Because we are a couple for life,
Together, husband and wife.

Why do you want to be so cruel,
And act like a fool?
Can't you see that this is wrong,
But know that I'm not gone
Because my love is true,
For just one person, YOU!

Why I'm Blue

I try telling you in every way I know,
That I truly love you so
But you don't hear

What I'm saying and so I fear
That I may never hold you
And that's why I'm blue.

All I want in life
Is for you to become my wife.
I know I can make you happy,
If you would only see
The things I do
But you don't and that's why I'm blue.

I live my life from day to day
Trying to come up with new things to say
To grab your attention
But no matter what I mention
Nothing changes, nothing's new
So for that I am blue.

Why Me

Why would you pick
A guy like me?
I am no prize.
I am not even lovely to see.

There are many others
Who plead for your love.
They are better than I,
Also knowing you are an Angel from above.

They beg for your attention,
They can bring you wonderful gifts.
I know for sure,
In your life I will send riffs.

I have no money,
My soul is marked with pain.
I want to love you,
But I'm a fool, insane.

You are a beauty,
Like none I have other seen.
You can have any man you want,
So why pick a guy like me?

Will...

Will we ever meet?
Will I hold you in my arms?

Will I be able to kiss your lips?
Will you be able to resist my charm?

Will I make love to you?
Will you give me your heart?
Will you keep your distance?
Will you force us apart?

Will you trust me?
Will you let me in?
Will you leave me?
Will you love me and no other men?

Will you really hurt me?
Will you cause me great pain?
Will you please please be mine?
Will you allow your heart to love again?

World's Greatest Lover

To be able to laugh
To be able to talk
To be able to smile
While out for a walk.

To be able to share things
To be able to trust
To be able to count on you
That is a must.

To always be there
To catch me if I fall
To comfort me
To help me through it all.

To know me is love me
And to love me is no easy task
You have to accept all of me
Even my mask.

So to be my lover
Is to be my best friend.
To be the world's greatest lover
Is to love me till the end.

You Can't Get Rid of Me

You can't get rid of me easily,
I'm here to stay

And I'll be here for you
Each and every day.

You can't get rid of me
I'm hard to lose.
I'll never leave
Cause to stay is what I choose.

You can't get rid of me
Because my love is true.
So I'm here to stay
Only because I love you.

You can't get rid of me
Even if you try
Because I will always be yours
Till the day I die.

You Make Me Happy

You make me happy
You make me giddy
You make me feel oh so witty.

You I admire
You are my one desire
You set my soul on fire.

You have a clue
You know it's true
You know I love you!

You're Gone

Why do I have to go?
That's a question I may never know
But you made it very clear
That I am no longer welcome here.

You told me to leave cause we're through
You said I should have nothing to do with you.
You said our love has died
And it will never come back no matter how hard I try.

I don't know what it is I done,
I thought you were having so much fun.
I guess that I was wrong
Because now you're gone!

You're Gonna Think of Me

When I'm gone, you're gonna think of me
And when my face you see
You're gonna breath a soft sigh
As in your heart again you say good-bye.
You're gonna think of me and so
Your eyes will tear up, you're gonna smile
You'll laugh and you'll cry for a while.
You're gonna remember the good times and the bad
The times I made you happy, the time I made you sad.
You're gonna think of me and see me like no other
You may see me as a friend, as a lover.
You may see me for what I really was,
A man who could always give you a cheerful buzz.
So when you're sad and feeling blue
You're gonna think of me and in death my memory will comfort you.

You're Special to Me

You're special to me,
I hold you up high
You can make me soar
Higher than anything in the sky.

You're special to me
And I love you so.
I hope we never end.
I pray you never go.

You're special to me
There's no denying that.
You're special to me
And I'll never take it back.

You're special to me
And nothing can take my love away.
You're special to me
So I'll love you with my heart every day.

Smile

Smile like there's no tomorrow.
Smile and take away someone's sorrow.
Smile cause I love it when you do.
Smile, cause it cheers me up, how about you?
Smile, smile, smile, just do it for a while.
Smile, God I love it when you smile.

New Mom

Is there anything more beautiful than a pregnant woman?
With her large belly, that radiant glow,
She is the bringer of life.
Is there anything more beautiful than a pregnant woman?
I think not.
