This chapbook is dedicated to the one I love

HIGHER

I'll climb the Everest to show you my Love
Jump from the mountain to win your heart
Many obstacles are trying to keep us apart
I'll go higher, leap over all and keep us close

From the top of Eiffel tower I'll sing a song
So you can hear my voice from far away
I'll sing into the air and the wind amplifies
It will reach to you no matter where you are

My heart keeps beating, just for you alone
I'm only flesh, you're my rock and my bone
With you I'm willing to ascend any throne
Cause together we'll achieve greater heights

Ever since you came into my life
I only think of ways to go higher

Sonnet c1

WINNING

Coming from series of battles, we don't stop
We keep moving cause the top is the aim
Even if faced with brick walls, we don't abort
We'll climb over to the brighter side of life

With eyes on the creator as our support
Look at the food chain, we're at the top
Basking in the euphoria of divine wisdom
Let it flow from the source that never dries

We'll keep winning, making it a way of life
Staying positive even in the time of strife
Being optimistic when faced with drought
Turning bad days to good days with a smile

Each day in life, the battle keeps coming
We don't fright, we've got what it takes to win

Sonnet c2

HOMING

No matter how wild my emotions run
It'll keep coming back to you my world
Your words keep ringing in my head
They guide me even when I go astray

I search the nook and cranny of my heart
It's all filled up, your love wraps me fully
Nothing can detach my heart from yours
We magnet each other, we're stuck forever

I may go far, but never take to worries
Like a pigeon I'll keep coming back
To you, and to ensure you're happy
That's the only thought on my way out

Life can take me to distant places
I'll always come back to you my Love.

Sonnet c3

FIRST LOVE

Let's dance all night doing the tango
Hold me close as we spin through life
I want to spend my happy days with you
And see ourselves grow old to babies

First love has left its sting on me
It's been so from the first day we met
Giving my last blood making things fine
Toiling to put a roof over our heads

If I ever wake up to a world without you
Life will go on but things become bland
Your Love spices up my journey on earth
I'm contented with you, I search no further

My first Love has been my best Love
Because she's willing to spill first blood

Sonnet c4

MY QUEEN

Brave hearted in the face of turmoil
Sure-footed in creating life paths
Deep rooted, her views are positive
We crossed path sharing God's gift

She'll be the one to rule my kingdom
In my absence she rises to stardom
Leading the battle to sounds of victory
She's got clues passed on from history

I'm confident and trust in her decision
She's passed all test set with precision
Having you is God's continuous Blessing
I cherish you to a point I'll lay my life

There is no King without a Queen
You're the perfect being for me

Sonnet c5

STUMBLE

No path created is the perfect one
There are bridges on any way taken
Even on this one that we have chosen
We've also come across rough days

We've prayed while wishing for better days
Crying on the days the pain seems not to go
If you can't remember the hunger, I felt it
I was awake on those nights thinking

We stumble, hold each other on the way
If one falls the other is always close by Bonded heart and this is the right option
Closely knitted, interwoven from within

Even if the bridge shakes and we stumble,
We'll always make our way across this path

Sonnet c6

MELT

The rain is falling, my heart is melting
Love is calling and the cold is coming
You I'm wanting to hold through time
You're expensive yet I have no dime

My melted heart is turning into gold
I sold it all to be able to have you
Crushed Love, you fix my soul entirely
Broken world, you gum my heart to yours

Now I'm liquid, you caused all the flow
Even through danger, I'll still seek you
You're hot, no fly can perch on my Love
You burn me, you kiss ignites a fire in me

I am a rock, stubborn and hot headed
But your love is fire that melts me completely

Sonnet c7

SINGING

You'll find me at the city gate
Or at the bar doing the karaoke
At the concert with million souls
I'll tell them all you're the best

Deep down in the ocean they all know
They heard my songs and now dancing
They all are singing " What a beautiful Love "
Thereafter saying " We all need such Love "

At the royal court I'll go on to sing songs
Of the beautiful love that you show to me
For everyone to go on and find such Love
Mine gives me goosebumps from her touch

I can go on singing songs forever
Into the afterlife I call forever

Sonnet c8

CONSCIOUS

I'm conscious to your feelings my Rose
I'll nurture and make your petals shine
Through the autumn when your leaves shed
I'll be with you till the time you spring again

I'll give you water until you blossom
And you begin to attract the butterflies
They'll want to suck and drink your juice
Your milk is reserved for your kids only

When you hurt I can feel it inside of me
Each step you take I keep praying for you
Each sweat you break comes back profitable
With clear conscience making life to be good

There is never a time I don't think of you
Each seconds you are in my consciousness

Sonnet c9

THROW

I'll throw away all my dirt and turn clean
Years of habits that turned to hindrance
Clays of filth that I unknowingly molded
I got burned and became hard like bricks

Anger that can overthrow good thoughts
Fierce words with venom like the serpent
Not willing to take instructions from you
I never knew all these should go away

I'll throw bad habits and pick up new live
As to grease our Love and keep heart beat
You are the reason I turn away from old
Cause no man will want to throw gold away

You're precious to me and priceless
I found you, I'll never throw you away

Sonnet c10

KNIGHT

On my Black horse I ride in the dark night
Into the wood making things to go right
Shinning vest on made with black iron ore
I ride into the wild to protect us from evil

I'll fight to defend our love through time
Building a wall to keep the enemies out
Securing our hearts against all doubts
Evolving through these moments in life

I'll race to keep our hearts beating together
Making sure that it ticks around the clock
Every day is one step closer to our dream
Closer to a time that victory is achieved

Even in the time of fierce battles
I'll fight to defend the love we share

Sonnet c11

SURVIVAL

Drowning in the ocean, our Love will not die
Crashing from the skies to earth, we survive
Through time of tears, we completely heal
Heaven said to me, we are meant to be

Even with distance , we broke boundaries
Feelings trying to be caged, freedom came
We are deep planted and meant to grow
Surely we are to reap where we sow

And when we are being thrust into the fire
Together we'll come out more refined
Because the Love we share is divine
We'll keep on growing like the vine

We are in this stormy days together
Stay calm cause we are survivals

Sonnet c12

DREAM

I see you in my dream each night I sleep
You reach out to me and I wish to follow
At the point my spirit is about to leap
With you I'll want to fly to the sky

Getting high and enjoying the view
I'll not want this love crash landing
If we land it's at the mountains top
We've set standards keeping us up

Like the eagle we'll build our nest high
Away from the reach of predators
A place where our Love soars and glide
No obstacles, our dreams will come true

In my sleep the world I wish for appears
I wake up living, I now have to create it

Sonnet c13

A DAY IN LIFE

One day I looked up and saw your face
Your beauty radiating I gazed for long
I stood like my feet was nailed to the ground
You smiled, it was the finest I had seen

One day I tried to redraw your beauty
In my mind I was the best of artist
I made a picture of what I dream
Which is to be with you every day

The other day you walked pass the front
I freeze, my heart stopped pumping blood
If I was to be hunted, you got me off guard
Like a statue I stood looking at God's beauty

On this day I profess my love for you
I want to spend the rest days with you

Sonnet c14

REINCARNATE

One day this flesh I have will be gone
I'll take home thoughts of days we shared
Memories that we made when together
Will give me a happy and fulfilled end

Days I drank from the fountain of your care
Deep down from where your love is pure
To lose you, a thing I will not dare
In my ailments your touch is the cure

I do not wish to break out of this Love
I want to be entangled in your arm
To be locked in the depth of your heart
And be filled with all your emotions

If I'm brought back to the world again
I'll still choose your love over and over

Sonnet c15

MY SUN

You're my sun, the brightest in my day
Around you my whole world rotates
You give me energy when I am weak
Sending hot rays to charge me up

You're the sunshine that grows my love
You shine on me, my heart becomes bright
A little of your light takes out the dark
Your smile sends to me emotional spark

Without you how do I grow on earth
You shower me with Love so green
You shone so bright on me, my rebirth
Drowning in your heart, my dream scene

My sun shines, to show us our path clearly
My sunshine is you and will be forever

Sonnet c16

RACE

For this long I'm yet to win your heart
I'm craving you and your sweet touch
The closer I get the farther you go away
I keep running after you, I won't let you go

I'm running, chasing after your heart
I'll cover more than a million miles
I won't stop to catch a breathe
If I fall let it be at your feet

If I die let it be in your arms
This way I know I reached my target
Looking back to the years I came from
It is worth it cause your heart is rare gem

I'll keep running after you nonstop
Until a time two hearts beats as one

Sonnet c17

PEN

The pen pours out emotion on paper
It is the best of lotion that is applied
Words that are difficult to express
Are written with no vocal limitations

The best of gifts than can be given
A tool that sets the mind horizon free
Ink that comes from within inspiration
Is certain to flow and never run dry

The pen is a key to figure things out
Burden of life is being modelled with it
It can be used to wipe away your cries
Just write what gives you ultimate joy

Each pen I see that is loaded with ink
I see blank pages waiting to be filled

Sonnet c18

THE VIEW FROM HERE

I sit up at night gazing at the stars
I wonder how it feels to be high up there
There is anguish on the grounds I stand
I can't sleep cause the hunger increases

From the time my parent planted this seed
Through the years they kept cleaning weed
Even through famine, I kept growing up
Tending high to shine bright up in the sky

I do not know what tomorrow holds for me
I wish to come out and shine some day
So that the world will see this light
That was about to be kicked out of the sky

Now I'm up viewing earth from the sky
All I see are the oceans and the grasses

Sonnet c19

FERTILE

Ground so green flower well groomed

I want to know the taste of your sweetness

At all times you flower and you bloom

Your roots must be deep to stay evergreen

I want to plant my seed in your fertile ground

So we see what the next generation holds

To see life with you through a single lens

The faces of our kids when our world is one

We'll grow together and have big trees

Years of watering and tending the garden

It shall all come back in good fate to us

We plant and water but God grows the seed

I have an idea to plant in you

I want to see it on our children's face
